

at a meeting to be held at 11:30 a. m. today.

The tenant leaders were pleased with the result of the conference.

"Gen. Davis has expressed our ideas for relief. As long as we think so much alike there is a chance for his committee to get somewhere," said Mr. Jesurun. "We don't know what the attitude of the other members of the committee will be, but if they work with Gen. Davis our troubles may soon be at an end."

Going After Speculators in Flats.

Announcement that the committee will investigate alleged wildcat speculators in apartment buildings who have boosted rents to further their ends was also made by Gen. Davis. His attention was called during the day to firms offering to sell buildings promising an annual return of 25 to 35 per cent on the investment.

"We will get around to those fellows too," said Gen. Davis. "If a landlord is getting 9 per cent on his investment he is getting all he is entitled to. The gross earnings should be about 24 per cent. It takes about 15 per cent for the operating expenses and the remainder is profit."

Rent Boost for Mayor's Clerk.

Hi Rent dealt Mayor Thompson's of Rice a blow yesterday when Abraham Kaplan, owner of an apartment building at 205 Margate terrace, raised the rent of Abe Merinbaum, the mayor's chief clerk, from $65 to $125.

"I'm going to move," expostulated Merinbaum. "I've engaged a new flat. They should put any one in jail who would pay $125 a month for the place I am living in now."

Good landlords as well as the other kind were heard of during the day by City Real Estate Agent Peacock. Nicolas Bennett, 3518 North Albany avenue, wrote that he had raised the rent of a tenant living in a five room stove heated flat from $18 to $20.

"If they were all as proportionate as that life would be one sweet song," commented Mr. Peacock.

City Hall Gets Complaints.

Among the complaints received yesterday by the city rent department were the following:

Annie Goldberg, 6001 Carpenter street, rent of five room stove heated flat raised from $20 to $27.50.

F. B. Kirkland, 5710 Blackstone avenue, rent of seven room stove heated flat raised from $10 to $15.00.

William J. Alter, 4041 Parson street, rent of five room stove heated, gas lighted flat raised from $45 to $65.

Miss K. Levine Allen, 1414 Wilson avenue, rent for four small stove heated rooms raised from $45 to $60.

F. H. Huff, 424 West Sixty-sixth street, rent of six room stove heated flat raised from $30 to $70.

Marquis J. Newell, professor of mathematics in the Evanston high school, was yesterday charged as a "rentless profiteer" by one of his tenants, W. F. Leggett, 2017 Sherman avenue. According to Mr. Leggett the professor announced a raise in rent from $65 to $85.

Here's Another Idea.

A plan for the stimulation of building and the permanent solution of the rent situation through the suspension of improved property taxes was made yesterday by E. H. Ullman, formerly a dry goods merchant of Memphis, Tenn., and now retired and living at 625 South Ashland boulevard.

Off building material prices and labor problems would be easily overcome. The city would not lose because it would still be setting its tax on the ground values. I am sure this plan would induce builders to get busy."

TENANTS ORGANIZE

The necessity of anti-rent gouging legislation in Illinois was the keynote at a tenants' meeting last night in the Sexton school, East Sixty-third street and Langley avenue. The Woodlawn branch of the league was organized. Several hundred attended the meeting, and 186 became members, according to E. A. Potter, business manager of the organization.

J. R. Patterson, president, and A. E. Jesurun, secretary, assured the tenants that, regardless of the actions of the Chicago Real Estate board's committee, a committee of tenants would go to Springfield to fight for rent legislation.

The plans of Gen. Davis were reported and the speakers expressed their belief in his sincerity.

JUDGE SUGGESTS CURB ON POWERS OF LANDLORDS

Would Take Away Speedy Trial Privilege.

BY GENEVIEVE FORBES.

Protesting landlords received an other blow yesterday when Judge William N. Gemmill, after several weeks of careful investigation, declared himself heartily in favor of taking away from the landlord-tenant cases their present privilege of immediate trial and precedence over all other cases.

He urged that they be placed at the foot of the regular jury calendar, which means, frequently, that they will not be disposed of for a year.

The Illinois statute rules that "All cases shall be tried or otherwise disposed of in the order they are placed on the docket unless the court, for good and sufficient cause, shall otherwise direct."

Tried First at Present.

At present the court assumes that the landlord-tenant cases are "good and sufficient cause" for advancement. The court has, therefore, handled them almost immediately, many within five days, and few later than two weeks after presentation.

"This privilege," said Judge Gemmill, "was granted because it was thought necessary and fair to dispose of such cases at once. The landlords, however, have resorted to such arbitrary and high handed methods that something has got to be done to stop them. The state legislature is working on the problem, but there must also be some immediate action. The most effectual way, in my mind, to meet the emergency, is to take away the privilege of advancement and to place all such cases on the regular jury docket."

Landlords Are Assailed.

"The protesting landlord raises the rent out of all proportion and reason. The tenants object. The landlord threatens to eject them. The case comes to court. The landlord's case is given precedence. He thinks he can run the whole affair, intimidate families, use 'Spanish Inquisition' sort of methods, rule the courts, do just about what he pleases. This must be stopped. If an order were drawn providing that these cases be tried in regular turn, the landlord would, perhaps, look a bit before he leaped so far. If he wishes to eject a family, he must have the court do it for him. If the court will not try his case until its regular turn, and if that regular turn may not come for a year, he will not be so anxious to eject the protesting family. At least the ruling would be a legitimate curb on the arrogance of many profiteering landlords."

The sample case was found to belong to Axel Paulson, one of the salesmen, and now the police are looking for the man who took the case, containing $1,500 in jewelry.

CYCLONE RELIEF FUND'S HANDLING BRINGS PROTEST

Melrose Park Men Ask Accounting.

Some residents of Melrose Park, dissatisfied at the manner in which the $95,000 tornado relief fund was expended by the general relief committee, will hold a protest meeting on Sunday at the home of Herman Nottmeyer in the western suburb. Charges were made by Nottmeyer and other tornado victims yesterday that no accurate accounting has been made by the committee.

The committee is headed by Mayor C. J. Wolf, president of the Melrose Park State bank, and consists of H. W. Tolsted of Maywood, vice president; E. A. Colley of Maywood, secretary, and R. L. White of River Forest, treasurer.

Nottmeyer Makes Charges.

"The Red Cross was practically forced to turn over $25,000 to the committee," said Nottmeyer, "and no reference is made to this in the only report so far made by the committee."

Mrs. A. Iversen, 1102 Fifteenth avenue, Melrose Park, who lost her home and husband in the storm, declares she is entitled to a Red Cross pension that never has been paid.

"Mr. Wolf told me a check for $500 had been sent to me," she said, "but to date I have not received it."

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lockman, 1107 Fifteenth avenue, Melrose Park, said they were charged $455 for labor and material and that when their attorney saw the committee this figure was cut to $255.

Here's the Other Side.

Chairman Wolf declared the report of the committee had been audited by public accountants in Chicago and approved by the Red Cross and Mayor Thompson committees.

"My conscience is clear and I have nothing to fear from an investigation," he said. "We have received no formal complaint of any kind. As soon as copies of the report are off the press copies will be sent to the donors and victims. Each member of the committee paid his own expenses."

"Those who are yelling are the ones found to have assets and whose allotments were accordingly reduced by the committee. Herman Nottmeyer's allotment was cut away down because after the storm had passed he got $6,000 for his house, built thirty years ago, and erected a $10,000 home in another section of the suburb."

DILLINGHAM MAY SAVE U. S. FROM ALIEN FLOODS

Would Put Immigration on Percentage Basis.

"BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT."

Washington, D. C., Feb. 10.—[Special.]—Hopes of enacting legislation at the present session of congress to halt the flood of immigration from Europe were revived today.

The senate immigration committee, which voted yesterday to make an adverse report on the Johnson bill, passed by the house, to suspend all immigration for one year, decided today to recommend passage of the Dillingham bill, restricting immigration on a percentage basis.

Advocates of a flat embargo on immigration decided not to fight the Dillingham bill. They will content themselves with attempting to amend it to make it more restrictive, but they will endeavor to facilitate its passage before March 4. Study of the immigration problem has convinced some senators that the Dillingham bill may prove more restrictive even than the Johnson bill.

Limit May Be 200,000.

The Dillingham bill would permit the admission of immigrants from any one country up to 5 per cent annually of the total number of natives of that country residing in the United States, according to the 1910 census. It would allow a maximum of about 600,000 immigrants a year, but because of the peculiar application of the percentage system the number actually admitted probably would fall far short of the maximum figure. Some senators estimate that the admissions would not total more than 200,000 annually under the Dillingham bill.

On the other hand, testimony has been given before the senate immigration committee that the Johnson bill, by permitting the admission of relatives of aliens already in the United States, would not effectually check immigration. It would be easy to use the relative exemption clause as a means of evading the law, according to testimony. The Dillingham bill makes no exception in favor of relatives after the 5 per cent limit has been reached.

Harrison Urges Action.

Senator Harrison of Mississippi, Democrat, who has been advocating the Johnson bill, urged Republican leaders today to give the Dillingham bill a place on the calendar of measures to be brought to a vote at this session. He told the senate he would like to see the bill amended in several respects, but was anxious to have some kind of immigration legislation enacted at once. He probably will offer amendments to lower the percentage basis in the Dillingham bill. Such amendments were proposed before the immigration committee today, but were rejected.

Before voting finally on the Dillingham bill, the committee amended it to

WASHINGTON NEWS - IN BRIEF

BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 10.

Republican leaders decided to put through the senate the soldiers' bonus bill already passed by the house, leaving the question of raising the money to the next congress.

Hopes for immigration restriction legislation at this session of congress were revived when the senate committee reported the Dillingham percentage restriction bill.

Democratic leaders in the senate said they have positive assurance that the president will veto the agriculture emergency tariff bill.

A determined drive to force consideration of packers legislation by the house at the present session of congress has been begun by farm and labor organizations.

Increased duties on leather goods and continuance of the free importation of hides were urged by the leather tanning industry before the house ways and means committee.

The house military committee decided to conduct a thorough investigation into the escape from Fort Jay, N. Y., of Grover C. Bergdoll, and his subsequent charges of money corruption.

make it effective April 1, 1921, and to continue it in effect until June 30, 1922, by which time the committee hopes to work out a permanent solution for the immigration problem. Another amendment was adopted to exempt Asiatic immigration, which is already barred by treaty or diplomatic agreement.

Immigrants Plague-Ridden.

The menace of unrestricted immigration is illustrated by reports that ships arriving from Europe bring immigrants covered with lice and suffering various plagues. Twenty cases of typhus were found aboard the San Gusto from Trieste and Naples.

ROADS TO SEEK PAY SHOWDOWN WITH WORKERS

Take New Tack as Labor
Board Throws Out Plea.

By ARTHUR M. EVANS.

Railroad executives announced last night that they will now proceed to make a new offer to the workers, but that they will not discuss the question of wages until the board has decided on a new plan. The board has rejected the offer of the executives, and the workers have refused to accept it. The board has decided to make a new offer, but it will not discuss the question of wages until the board has decided on a new plan. The board has rejected the offer of the executives, and the workers have refused to accept it. The board has decided to make a new offer, but it will not discuss the question of wages until the board has decided on a new plan.

Roads' Plea Thrown Out.

There is a birdseye of what happened. The board rejected the offer of the executives, and the workers have refused to accept it. The board has decided to make a new offer, but it will not discuss the question of wages until the board has decided on a new plan. The board has rejected the offer of the executives, and the workers have refused to accept it. The board has decided to make a new offer, but it will not discuss the question of wages until the board has decided on a new plan.

The present national agreements will continue in force until the present dispute is completed and they are modified or substituted by a new code drafted by the board. These agreements, five in number, establish the working rules for the shop crafts, stationery, freight, and others, clerks, maintenance of way men and signal men. They do not cover wage rates.

The plea of the roads was that if the new rules were adopted, the workers would be asked to accept a saving of at least $200,000,000 would ensue in operating expenses. The agreements do not apply to the four big brotherhoods.

May Seek Wholesale Cut.

Although the decision was counted a victory for the unions, it may result in a wholesale application from the roads for a reduction in wages along the line. Mr. Atterbury's plea was predicated upon the idea that the workers would hold back such requests for at least ninety days. Some roads, however, have already proceeded to announce cuts without further ceremony and protests are being filed with the labor board.

Frank P. Walsh, counsel for the unions, asked for the summoning of some two dozen financiers, including William Rockefeller, with a view of taking into the question of a "Wall Street conspiracy" to destroy unions and crush collective bargaining. From indications the board will not call them in. The theory on which it rejected the Atterbury plea was that of agreements because of "bankruptcy" for the roads was that questions of financing in the province of the interstate commerce commission. This is based on the effort, would also apply to Mr. Walsh's offer to corral the fifty-four financiers.

Asks A. B. & A. Plea Dismissed.

The case of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroad asking permission to chop wages to avert falling prices for the financial precipice came up. S. Carter, head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, moved it be dismissed, his argument being "if the hour has come when the workers are asked to make a sacrifice upon the financial ability of the railroad to pay wages the theory of the transportation act will be completely reversed. The proper step would be an appeal to the interstate commerce commission for relief. There is no justice in the theory that out of the wages of employees must come all losses sustained by a railroad."

Revision Is Looked For.

To an outsider the developments of the board may take the following course relative to the national working agreements: After the hearings are completed, the board may consume at least a month. The agreements will not be abolished, but they will be revised. A new set of rules will be drafted, and the old one substituted. It will establish certain rules of national application and the rest will be left to local negotiation between the men and the roads. It should be borne in mind that the national agreements simply deal with the working conditions and not with wage schedules, although, of course, such as are unreasonable—and there are many of them—serve to inflate labor costs on the roads.

CONQUEROR OF EIGHT BANDITS AND BULLET SHATTERED CAR

Jeremiah O'Mara, who fought robbers.

O'Mara's auto, riddled by bandit bullets.

Indicated, must proceed with reasonable speed.

An apparent tendency by the unions to spar for time was rather frowned on. On Saturday B. M. Jewell will tell the board when he will be ready with his presentation.

Labor was jubilant over the day's work.

The executives, too, were "trailed" by some aspects. W. Jett Lauck, economist for the unions, said the real issue now is "not these rules, but what they concretely sanction—the principle of collective bargaining on the basis of union recognition." The executives point out that the main issue is that of the "reasonable" or otherwise of the working rules.

Decision Stirs Surprise.

The board's decision came "like a bolt from the blue," to use the phrase of B. M. Jewell, head of the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor. The union men were all primed for an attack upon the plea of the executives on the argument that the roads are trying to make labor bear the burden of uneconomical and inefficient management and that it is all part of the movement for the "open shop."

Before a word was said, however,

Chairman Barton of the board announced that the plea of the roads for a hurry up abrogation of national agreements was denied. It left the case where it was before Gen. Atterbury for the roads interjected his appeal for action immediately and forthwith. It likewise suspended the fire-rebuttal—the tenor of which has been outlined in several statements from the unions since the controversy began.

Walsh Charges "Open Shop" Plot.

Mr. Walsh amplified it, charging the railroads with being a party to a conspiracy to wipe out all collective bargaining and put labor unions out of business. He asked for the summoning of about twenty-four financiers, asserting that twenty-five men sit on the boards of ninety-nine Class I railroads operating 21,221 miles of track, or 82 per cent of the total mileage of the United States. The twenty-five, he said, divide among them 193 railroad directorships, averaging eight directorships apiece, and all belong to the "inner banking circle centering around the House of Morgan and the National City bank."

The financiers asked for by Mr. Walsh were:

R. S. Lovett, William Rockefeller, H. W. De Forest, A. H. Smith, G. F. Baker, H. S. Vanderbilt, Samuel Rea, L. F. Loree, A. J. County, Alfred W. Krench, F. H. Davis, W. W. Atterbury, J. E. Reynolds, Charles Steele, M. H. Smith, Charles Hayden, A. H. Harris, Charles E. Ingersoll, E. T. Stotesbury, Eugene Fair, T. De Witt Cuyler, Henry Walters, E. V. R. Tanager, Julius Kruttschnitt. The outlook, however, is that these men will not be summoned.

Gen. Atterbury last night issued a statement reading in part as follows:

"I wish now to direct your attention to the fact that the financial situation

STORM KILLS 30; STRINGS VICTIMS IN GEORGIA FIELD

Oconee, Ga., Feb. 10.—A windstorm that struck the Gardner settlement, one mile from here, shortly after noon today brought death to two white persons and nearly thirty Negroes and serious injury to five white persons and more than a score of Negroes.

A section of land extending to almost

Toomsboro, nearly five miles long and about a half mile wide, is as barren as a prairie tonight, not a building or tree standing.

Among the dead Benjamin Orr, 14

years old, was decapitated. Eighty-two children and three teachers were in a school building on the edge of the settlement when the tornado struck. The building was twisted to pieces and the fragments scattered for miles. Children were carried for some distance, but only one was seriously bruised.

The tornado spent its force in the settlement of Negro houses. In the rear of the houses was an open field, extending for nearly a mile. It was into this field that men, women, and children were carried to their death from their seats at dinner tables. One Negro boy was found with a board driven into his forehead. He was alive, and it is believed he will live.

Two Additional Counts.

The indictment on which Davis was arrested charged embezzlement, but there are said to be two other counts—concerning which the county prosecutor would say nothing.

Residents of the Indiana neighborhood where Davis lived suspect the other indictments may charge responsibility for the deaths of his parents and robbery of the old homestead.

Davis was taken last night to the

Jasper county jail at Rensselaer, Ind.

ARREST FOR $1,500 THEFT MAY CLEAR 2 DEATHS IN FIRE

Hoosier Seized Here as Embezzler.

The arrest of Ralph M. Davis of Morocco, Ind., yesterday in the Y. M. C. A. hotel here on a charge of a $1,500 embezzlement, may open the way to the solution of the death of both his parents on Jan. 21.

His father was Willis O. Davis, a prosperous farmer near Enos, Ind. The bodies of the elder Davis and his wife were found charred in the basement of their burned house.

Their nearest neighbor was the son, Ralph Davis. He was questioned at the coroner's inquest, but a verdict of accidental death was returned. The facts of the fire and of the double death were discovered by the son himself, who returned the same day from a visit to Chicago.

Bought Prize Bull.

Some time ago young Davis bought Pledge Duke de Koi Weatrip, a pedigreed bull, at a fancy price. Davis was treasurer of the farm bureau of Newton county, Indiana, and it developed that he stole approximately $1,500 of the bureau's funds and used it to buy the bull.

That was some time before his parents' mysterious death. Young Davis also spent more money than was customary on farm implements and improvements.

Sheriff Earl B. Gardner went to

Davis' farm to arrest him when several discrepancies were found in his accounts. He had fled. Yesterday he was taken into custody at the Y. M. C. A. hotel here.

"I took $1,500," he said, "but most of the money went to my sick children."

Two Additional Counts.

The indictment on which Davis was arrested charged embezzlement, but there are said to be two other counts—concerning which the county prosecutor would say nothing.

Residents of the Indiana neighborhood where Davis lived suspect the other indictments may charge responsibility for the deaths of his parents and robbery of the old homestead.

Davis was taken last night to the

Jasper county jail at Rensselaer, Ind.

DISARMAMENT IS VOTED DOWN BY JAPANESE DIET

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

TOKIO, Feb. 10.—A disarmament bill

brought before the Japanese diet today by Mr. Ozaki, a former leader of the opposition party, was defeated by a vote of 285 to 38. Mr. Ozaki pointed out the "folly and danger of competing with America in view of the wide difference in the respective wealth of the two nations."

The speakers against the measure

said they approved of disarmament in principle, but declared that Japan could not take the lead in reducing military and naval strength despite its peaceful intentions.

Mr. Ozaki is politically unpopular in Japan, he having left or been expelled from every party. However, he was cheered by a large crowd in the gallery.

BELGIANS FIRE ON GERMANS,

LONDON HEARS

[London, Feb. 10.—(By the Associated Press).—Serious fighting between the German population and a Belgian patrol in Aix la Chapelle is reported in an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Amsterdam today.

The dispatch, quoting a message from Aix la Chapelle in the Belgian occupation area, says a number of inhabitants of the town refused to obey the police instructions with regard to the carnival celebrations and remained in the streets and cafes until after the hour fixed for closing the festivities.

This resulted, it is added, in a Belgian

patrol firing on a crowd, wounding several persons.

Shriners Initiate 100

Candidates in Shanghai

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

SHANGHAI, Feb. 10.—For the first time in the history of the order degrees in the Mystic Shrine were conferred outside North America when 100 candidates were initiated today at the beginning of a three day convocation in this city. The movement to obtain dispensation, allowing the conferring of Mystic Shrine degrees in Shanghai, had been in progress for fourteen years.

CAPITOL ECHOES TO GALBRAITH'S "THIS WAY OUT"

Congressmen Recall the Von Mach Appeals.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 10.—[Special.]—The fact that Col. F. W. Galbraith, commander of the American Legion, ordered Edmund Von Mach, German propagandist, out of the door yesterday when Von Mach asked Galbraith to speak at a meeting of protest against the French occupation of Germany with colored troops, created interest in congress today.

Senators and representatives commented on the flood of petitions fostering this movement that has poured in through their mail within the last three months.

Among the pamphlets and periodicals is a copy of George Sylvester Viereck's The American Monthly for January, the entire back page of which consisted of an appeal signed by Von Mach in behalf of the "campaign fund against the horrors of the Rhine."

Britten Moved to Speech.

Representative Fred Britten of Illinois, author of the resolution for a request that the troops be withdrawn, today confirmed Von Mach's statement to Galbraith that he would speak at the Madison Square garden meeting Feb. 28. Senator William E. Borah of Idaho said he told Von Mach he would not accept any invitations to speak during the session of congress.

Mr. Britten said he expected to hold hearings on his resolution as soon as he received some additional advice from France on the alleged occupation by the colored troops.

Germans' Feelings Hurt.

He said that Ambassador Wallace, at the instance of the state department, conferred with Premier Millerand last summer, and that as a result the Negro troops were withdrawn, although some of the "lighter skinned" ones remain. It is assumed he meant the Algerians and Moroccans.

The German people object to any troops other than white remaining in the occupied territory, he asserted.

CITY HALL ASKS ASSEMBLY FOR RULE OF BENCH

Special Bill Is Offered to Legalize Slate.

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.
Springfield, Ill., Feb. 10.—[Special.]
The Luntin organization today started its drive to seize control of the approaching Republican nominations for Superior and Circuit court judges in Cook county. Gov. Small had introduced in the senate a bill to legalize the election of the "new" or Luntin county committee. Senator Luntin, from the home district of Col. Frank L. Smith, chairman of the Republican state committee, presented the bill.

In some quarters the introduction of the Luntin bill is considered a concession by the Luntin leaders that the old Brundage-Deneen committee is the legal Republican organization in Chicago.

Senate Is Kept Waiting.
The bill carries an emergency clause. The senate was held in session for quite a bit, with the three or four senators present twiddling their thumbs, while the bill was being completed in the governor's office. It first was referred to the elections committee, of which the chairman is Senator Brock, campaign manager for the Oglesby ticket last fall.

Something happened and Senator Luntin asked Lieut. Gov. Sterling to send it to the judiciary committee, of which Senator Dailey of Peoria is the chairman.

In its provisions the Luntin bill stipulates that all precinct and ward committees in each county and shall have the sole power to nominate judicial candidates for the June elections. The bill applies to all counties in the state and covers all of the forthcoming Supreme and Circuit court elections.

CAUSES NO SURPRISE.
Leaders of the Brundage-Deneen organization said they were not surprised at the effort to validate the Thompson committee by means of the Luntin bill.

"It was an obvious thing for them to attempt," one of them said, "but to pass it with the emergency clause requires a two-thirds vote, which is extremely doubtful in the senate."

"The decision of the Supreme court in the Fox case was, in effect, that the election in which the Thompson committee members won was not an election since the entire law was unconstitutional. The law holds that you can't validate something that didn't occur."

"The passage of this bill would be equivalent to an attempt by the legislature to appoint the Cook county committee. It has no such power."

Twenty-fifth Ward Ex-Service Men Who Are Backing Their "Buddy" for Alderman.

Charles J. Kraft (upper center).

"BUDDIES for Buddies" might be the motto of the newly organized Twenty-fifth Ward Ex-Service Men's club. The club was formed for the purpose of electing as alderman one of the ward's buddies, Charles J. Kraft. At a meeting last night in a hall at Lawrence avenue and Broadway the organization was completed. Mr. Kraft is running on the independent ticket, and his campaign manager is Clyde L. Backus. Mr. Kraft lives at 5730 Ridge avenue.

CLOCK HE STOLE FAILS BURGLAR; HE'S ARRESTED

At the home of August Kettman in Highland Park there was an alarm clock that never failed to work. Then one day a burglar stole it. Yesterday the same clock enabled Chief of Police Edward Moroney and Policeman John Sullivan of Highland Park to capture Charles Owen McCoy, overseas veteran, and debonair stock and bond salesman.

When the officers entered McCoy's room they started him out of a deep slumber. He cast a reproving look at the alarm clock. "I set it for 3 o'clock," he said, "so I could catch the train to Springfield. And can you imagine it not ringing?"

He admitted he had burglarized the home of Mr. Kettman and that of Joseph G. Davis.

The alarm clock was returned to the Kettman home.

PUBLIC WIELDS LEAGUE WEAPON ON NONPARTISANS

Cleveland, O., Feb. 10.—The All-American Cooperative congress, representing farm and labor organizations of the country, was appealed to today by Spurgeon O'Dell, representing the State Bank of North Dakota.

"One mistake we made in North Dakota," he said, "was that we have been too democratic. We gave the people the initiative and referendum and they have forced us to a referendum seven times."

"Last July the recall went into effect in North Dakota and now they are trying to trump up charges on which to recall the state officials."

Edmund Stewart, commissioner of labor statistics of the United States department of labor, will address the congress tomorrow.

ROADS MEN URGE HIGHWAY WORK START AT ONCE

Congress Points Out Plan
Will Employ Thousands.

BY MORROW KRUM.
At the close of yesterday's session of the Seventeenth American Good Roads Congress a resolution was passed urging that work for the coming year on the improvement of the nation be commenced immediately. There must be no waiting, no delay, according to the resolution, if the great program for 1921 is to be fulfilled.

The resolution was introduced following a "ginger" talk by T. H. MacDonell, chief of the United States bureau of public roads.

"We have to get to work right now," Mr. MacDonell said. "We have money to spend. We must start now."

Wisconsin Man's Resolution.
The resolution on the convention floor raised the issue.

Recognize Percy Silverwood, secretary of the Wisconsin Highway Congress association, said Mr. J. F. Patterson, president of the American Road Builders' association, who presided.

"Mr. Silverwood, I have a resolution," Patterson said. "The people in all parts of the United States have evidenced a desire for the construction of roads by making available large sums of money for this purpose."

Work for Thousands.
"Thereas, The immediate commencement and uninterrupted continuation of highway construction in all parts of the United States would provide necessary and much needed relief for thousands of men now out of employment, thus aiding greatly to the commerce and industry, and would directly contribute to our national wealth, therefore be it resolved by delegates of the Seventeenth American Good Roads Congress and by members of the American Road Builders' association, in joint session assembled, that the interests of the American people will best be served by immediately starting work on our many and vast highway programs."

The sessions of the congress will continue this morning.

Herr Stinnes Would Run Russian Locomotive Plant

LONDON, Feb. 10.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Berlin says that Herr Stinnes, German capitalist, is negotiating with the Moscow government for a concession to work the Briansk Iron Steel works, one of the greatest in Russia. Herr Stinnes has agreed to invest 2,000,000 gold rubles in the enterprise. He purposes to construct railway material and to pay 33 percent of the gross profits to the Russian treasury.

Irish Woes Not Nebraska's, Representatives Decide

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 10.—The Nebraska house of representatives, by a vote of 44 to 40, today refused to permit Miss Mary MacSwiney, sister of the late lord mayor of Cork, to speak here next Monday on the Irish question. In refusing Miss MacSwiney the right of the floor, the legislators declared her mission to this country was not of importance to the people of Nebraska.

The Democrats were encouraged by the president's intention. They renewed their attack on the bill.

MODERN JUGGERNAUTS RACE

(TRIBUNE Photo.)

DELEGATES to the good roads convention yesterday went to Harvey, Ill., to witness a test of speed between a steam road roller and a gasoline driven roller. The gas vehicle established a world's record by winning the half mile race in 6.58 1/2 seconds. The races were held down the main street of Harvey.

Mayor Matt Stobbs of Harvey was the starter.

The gasoline rollers in one event were piloted by young women. The ten ton machine driven by Miss Mina Elliott, with Carl Lankernau as engineer, won. Miss Myrtle Atkinson, with H. W. Koehn, as engineer, was second.

In a tug of war the gasoline roller piloted by Mr. Koehn, walked away with the steam roller driven by Oliver Clark before the cable was broken.

WILSON LOADS VETO SHOTGUN FOR TARIFF BILL

Washington, D. C., Feb. 10.—[Special.]—Assurances were received today by Democratic leaders in the senate that President Wilson will veto the agricultural emergency tariff bill pending in the upper house.

This information brought relief to many Republican senators who want to see the measure killed.

The bill was resurrected from the legislative pigeonhole and brought before the senate. Senator Penrose, chairman of the finance committee, predicted that it would come to a vote in the senate about Feb. 15. It is likely to pass, but it is doubtful whether it will command a sufficient majority to pass it over the president's expected veto. If there is any chance of passing over the presidential disapproval, the Democrats can easily filibuster against it until March 4.

ROME, Feb. 10.—[By the Associated Press.]—Archbishop Dougherty of Philadelphia will succeed to the next American cardinalate, according to the view held in vatican circles. The official announcement is waited hourly, and the almost unanimous opinion is that Archbishop Dougherty will be the choice.

The appointment of a new American cardinal will be made at the next secret consistory, which will be held early in March.

2 GOTHAM COPS INDICTED FOR DEATH OF BOY

New York, Feb. 10.—An indictment charging two members of the police department with murder in the first degree was returned by the grand jury late today, after former Gov. Whitman, conducting the inquiry into alleged city corruption, turned his attention to reputed suppression by the police of evidence in a murder case in 1918. The policemen were charged with responsibility for a boy's death in July, 1918.

GOLD STARS IN THE AIR MAIL FLAG.

The two air pilots and the mechanic who were killed in a burning mail plane when bound to Minneapolis from Chicago were soldiers of peace. It is unescapable that in the development of human enterprises there shall be sacrifices. It is unescapable that in the maintenance of many established enterprises there shall be sacrifices. Essential industries take an annual toll, and it is known that they will. Some progress entails a hazard. The men who take the hazard are taking risks for the people in general, and by their efforts life reaches higher levels.

The air service from its beginning has required many lives of the men trying to perfect it. These soldiers of peace have taken the risks. Some of them have been killed because they took the risks.

A few days ago a newspaper cartoonist in another city expressed in his picture an idea which may be prevalent where people do not consider realities or consider them only sentimentally. His inspiration was in the deaths in the air mail service, now increased unfortunately by three. His question was, "Is it worth while?" His idea was that the air mail service was damned and disgraced by its casualty list.

These deaths are recorded in an honor roll. They are the deaths of men who have devoted themselves to human progress. They are taking the chances which will open up lines of communication in the air. They make the experiments. They find the defects in construction and in methods. They make improvements possible. They are in the laboratories where dangerous tests are made and some of them do not survive.

Something valuable of the human future is in the air. Nearly every great improvement in human affairs has been made at human cost and there always have been men whose adventurous temperaments, courage, or conviction made them ready to conduct the experiments and give benefit to the race.

In peace these men are engaged in the moral equivalent of war. The making of the sea, the operation of railroads, the sailing of the sea, the driving of automobiles, the mining of coal, the fishing of cod, all these and many other occupations needed for life or important to it have a hazard which must be risked and which is risked.

The men in the air mail service are taking risks in the development of new and speedy means of communication. If there is an idea that it is not worth while that same idea, applied earlier, would have restricted means of communication to the ox cart.

There are three new gold stars in the flag of the air mail service for Pilot Carroll and Rowe and Mechanic Hill.

THE LEGION IS FINDING ITSELF.

Gen. Abel Davis, speaking before the executive committee of the American Legion in Washington Wednesday, declared former service men are being kept in private hospitals where conditions are "filthy" and "terrible." After this indictment of the federal service responsible for care of our incapacitated veterans he revealed that pressure brought by the Legion is bringing about the removal of the patients from at least one such hospital in Illinois.

The fact that our sick and wounded veterans are being neglected if not mistreated in numerous cases has been reiterated again and again in the last eighteen months to the disgrace of the responsible department and the shame of the entire country. This is almost the first time, however, that the Legion has been given credit for directly improving the situation. It will not be the last time.

The developments indicate that the Legion is beginning to feel its strength. Getting something for its sick and wounded members or comrades will improve and coordinate that strength. It is a good work which public neglect and indifference have forced the Legion to take up. It will eventually lead to other activities for the benefit of the organization and its members. By doing this good deed for its comrades the Legion has done a greater deed for itself. Such developments mean unity and effectiveness. Thereafter it may be looked to for results, improving as time goes on.

DISLOYALTY AMONG TEACHERS.

The chairman of the Americanization committee of the American Legion asserts that there are 8,000 teachers in the colleges and schools of the United States who merit dismissal because of disloyalty. Of these he says 2,000 are in the colleges.

The charge is sufficiently serious to justify inquiry by our educational authorities. It is not perhaps a large percentage considering the total number of teachers in the country, but it is too high considering what the teacher's office is.

The news report does not explain the basis of the committee's judgment or the source of its statistics. During the war there was, however, a pretty general test of the simple elements of loyalty and such an organization as the American Protective association could a large body of information and a rather intimate acquaintance with the disaffected in every community. Radicalism and sympathy with the enemy were not infrequently located, and we trust these data have been preserved and are available.

Freedom of conscience and of speech are as much the right of the teacher as of any other citizen so far as his or her private life is concerned. But as a practical matter, the private convictions of the teacher are virtually certain to color his influence upon the impressionable and immature minds committed to his charge. It is not expedient, therefore, for the nation to maintain or permit in the teacher's office men or women who are opposed to our institutions. These individuals may think and speak and write, within the limits of our liberal laws, as they see fit, but they should not be given the advantage of the teacher's rostrum and be paid out of public money to direct the minds of American youth against the institutions of their country.

THE TAX TANGLE.

Repeal of the excess profits tax at the spring session of congress is forecast by Republican leaders. The probability of such action is prompting much discussion in Washington as to how the consequent reduction in federal revenue will be met. The sales tax suggestion has met with strong support and considerable opposition.

Representative Fear of Wisconsin holds a view typical of the opposition. He says the tax will place on the workingman a burden now carried by the corporation. Representative Good of Iowa says the American people would not stand for such a tax and would ruin any party which advocated it.

Mr. Good would therefore substitute federal economies to allow elimination of the excess profits tax without substitution of any other. That would be excellent if possible. We doubt that any economies will accomplish so much. The Victory loan, for instance, of which more than $2,000,000,000 is outstanding, must be retired by May 20, 1923. The four Liberty loans will follow. Such obligations no economy can reduce. They call for taxes.

It is coming to be generally admitted that the excess profits tax is neither wise nor equitable. If the sales tax also is opposed the search for a way out leads to another suggestion. That is to reduce the tax necessity. The funding of our war debt is logical. By spreading the payment of the billions in Liberty and Victory loans over a longer period than originally contemplated we would reduce the necessity of the present high level of income. It would lighten the war veteran's burden of helping to pay for the war which he helped to win. It would improve the chances of making payments from Europe available for that purpose. It would allow us to recover in part from war and reconstruction troubles before taking up the heaviest part of our financial burden.

It is not a matter on which to dogmatize, but neither is it a matter on which to let political expediency crowd out sound economic policy. It is a subject on which every taxpayer, every consumer, and every congressman should put honest thought. If such a plan for reducing the tax burden is unwise, the problem of easier tax distribution remains, and with it the sales tax suggestion.

The sales tax would be a form of income tax in that it would take from the individual such portion of his income as he should choose to spend upon nonproductive things. It would at the same time stimulate the return of income to productive enterprise, thus stimulating business to offer remunerative employment and prosperity to the potential consumer. In this connection it may be recalled that even the highest luxury sales taxes failed to stop the stockyard worker's purchase of silk shirts or the steel worker's purchase of automobiles when we were at the height of our post-war prosperity and extravagance. Neither will a sales tax discourage buying in the future if the attendant prosperity is sufficient to provide funds for buying.

If it is a phase of income taxation it at least has the advantage of not restricting income. Its tendency would be to restrict unproductive outgo. In so doing it would improve upon the effect which the present income tax has upon fortunes such as that of John D. Rockefeller. The record shows he paid $13,000,000 or $14,000,000 last year on $20,000,000 or $25,000,000 income. That tends to distribute his fortune, and is good in so far as it goes, but it fails to account for income on tax exempt securities estimated at about $200,000,000. A sales tax would get a fair part of that income if Mr. Rockefeller spent any of it for anything except productive business, and if it went into such business the employee would get a part of it. That appears more equitable than for no one to get it.

NO STATE LINES IN THE JAP PROBLEM.

Constant reference to the California anti-Japanese laws in every discussion of American-Japanese relations has tended to increase the irritation of this particular feature of our international relations. Such emphasis of the tension between California and Japan tends to warp a national view of the problem. Inasmuch as the senate probably soon will have to consider a new treaty it is important that the Japanese question be seen in its true proportions as a national issue.

The growing tension between Americans and Japanese is not confined to California. The danger of unpleasant developments is not confined to California. The remedies to be applied, therefore, cannot be confined to California. The Japanese penetration of America is increasing. Any action concerning it must not overlook such evidence as the vote of the Utah house against Japanese land ownership, the vote of the Nevada senate to the same end, and similar expressions in New Mexico and Idaho announced Jan. 27.

The action of Texans in electing Japanese is merely another expression of the same thing. The Japanese are penetrating Utah, Idaho, Oregon, and Washington. Their occupation of California is only a part of the problem. Their relation to the nation is the important thing, and must be considered in the light of the penetration they have already effected.

Editorial of the Day

DAVES, DEFENDER OF THE FAITH.

(Rocky Mountain News.)

To Charles Gates Dawes of Chicago we pay homage. If the nation is honest with itself it will do so likewise: it owes him a debt of gratitude for his outspokenness, something so rare in these days of legislation by lobbies and government by phrases that when it is found it ought to be taken to heart, to the very heart's core. He walked into one of the innumerable congressional investigating committees two days ago like another Plumed Knight with shining lance and laid about him right merrily against slander and scandal and those who would belittle the work of the United States in the world war. Mr. Dawes is a bachelor, a financier, spoken of as a nominee for secretary of the treasury or chairman of the federal reserve board. All the more credit to him for his stand.

The explosion was required to purge the atmosphere at Washington that has been polluting the nation and leading it away from its splendid resolves of three and four years ago. The country has been hearing nothing but destructive criticisms, scandal, a "watering drive" against the whole conduct of the war, whereas what is required just now above anything else is a return to our earlier faith in ourselves, to be rid of the existing carping, self-inspective spirit that is slowly dripping adulteration of the national spirit. If we have no faith in ourselves why should others have it?

THE POWER OF MUSIC.

Oh, Throw Away Your Hammer and Get a Mandolin. Or, the Gentleman from Kentucky Has the cry of war, and was well on his pair. He too belongs to the musical German department. So he has another mandolin: Sing the rippling, tripping, Mississippian mandolin!

Night sits in the Campus Club. And the Gentleman from Kentucky is plinking "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia." And he's getting my goat—O, my sentimental, Detrimental goat!

The Kentucky gentleman's Virginia melody Carries me back to Indiana. To the cottage on the summer sands Where the night breeze sighs through the singing screens and the wistful waves moon all night long on the moonlit shore: Sing the rippling, tripping, Far from Mississippi shoo-ho-ho-ho!

LET us not forget an earlier Dawes, who, we read, "was the first to start out into the night to give the cry of war, and was well on his pair. He too belongs to the musical German department. So he has another mandolin: Sing the rippling, tripping, Far from Mississippi shoo-ho-ho-ho!" Apparently Longfellow should have begun: "Listen, my children, and you shall hear Of the midnight ride of Paul Revere, I am singing of Paul Revere because It jingles better than William Dawes."

Well worth the Trip. Honolulu, Jan. 10.—(The Traveler's Record.) After crossing 3,000 miles of land and 2,000 miles of ocean, I have discovered the thing for which I was led to Honolulu. It is a sign in one of the Japanese suburbs. It reads "Plumbing & Soldering." Please don't say that I am a plumber. I am not. I am a writer. While Hunker wrote well on many subjects, we found his music on music to be most worth while. His "Mezotints" was top-notch in music criticism. The judgments he pronounced twenty years ago need hardly any revising today. We never saw Hunker but once, when we were hurriedly introduced in a Kneisel concert crush, yet we always felt that we knew him well.

TRIBUTATIONS OF THE FOURTH ESTATE.

No, this department does not look just like it did when we first put it on the press. We had a nice lot of local news, an obituary, some paid want ads and a few other matters of importance. It was a nice lot of news, and we had had a couple of papers through when we discovered we forgot to look the forms on. The first page rolled off on the floor, upside down and we had to pick it up and put it back.

APPARENTLY the only chance for disarmament is an agreement by all the nations to chuck their bigguns at high noon on a certain Monday, the performance to be signalled by a button pressed in London or Paris.

THE THOUSAND AND ONE AFTERNOONS.

And so it befall that on the eve to be remembered day when this tale begins, the excellent Wessner, chief of the executive staff of the house of Housain & Company, Ltd., was prey to a profound despair. Three years had aged unduly this most faithful of servants, and the venerable old stenographer passed at morning into the private office of the merchant prince and passed out again at evening, never to return. Many of these were skilled and industrious, and Wessner had prayed that Housain would relent, but the merchant held resolutely to his vow, that each morning he should take a new secretary and send the old one to his grave. And now was the excellent Wessner at the end of his wits. No more stenographers were to be had. Employment agencies, wondering whence the advertising columns of the daily journals, all these sources of supply were drained. Friends had been begged, and the result was a dry. Wessner sighed deeply when he discharged the latest incumbent, and when she had departed, weeping and protesting, he sat in the deserted office, wondering whence he should evoke her wretched successor.

The door opened, and a damsel beautiful as the full moon appeared. "Where," said the apparition, "may I find the office manager?" "Heaven be praised, you have found him!" Wessner made answer, and hope flickered up in his heart. "Well," responded the damsel, "I have been flitting through this building all afternoon, looking for a job. I'm a great joy, and indeed of the damsel what experience had been here. 'As wide,' said she, 'as the business world; law offices, wholesale, retail, manufacturing, and the rest of it. I can look after routine correspondence without a peep of dictation. I invented the filing system. I have hand-illuminated reference books, and I can write in cursive, if I can't.' 'Can you report for duty at eight thirty tomorrow morning?' That is the important thing. 'What pray, sir, is the weekly salary?' It is daily, ten dollars. 'Your name?' 'My name,' said the damsel, 'is Saldee Perkins.' 'It is well,' said the excellent Wessner. And when the damsel had departed he closed his eyes and went to his bed with the lightest heart that he had borne in many, many moons.

CATARH DOESN'T POISON BODY.

ADMITTING that the normal mucus of the mucous membrane is harmless or even beneficial, that does not answer the question about catarrh of the head. Does it harm a man who has catarrh continually to swallow nasal mucus? The answer is no. The reasons are these: When a physician uses the term catarrh he has reference to the secretion of mucus, a helpful and not a harmful product. When a layman uses the term catarrh he has reference to a condition, usually of the nose, in which there is produced a large amount of secretion composed of pus and mucus.

In so-called catarrh of the head there is a chronic infection of the nose or some of the sinuses opening from the nose such as the one over the eye. There are several causes; or the principal cause of pus infection is the infection of the nose or throat membrane itself. The product is a mixture of pus and mucus. A good deal of this secretion may be swallowed in the course of a day. Is there any proof that it harms the body? The mucus contained is harmless. The pus is a mixture of white blood corpuscles, epithelial cells from the membrane, and serum from the blood. All this may be beneficial, especially if there exists an irritant stomach bordering on ulceration, with an excess of hydrochloric acid. If the digestion is slow and there is a deficiency of bile, the mucus may be of benefit. Eliminate the bacteria, preferably the Turkish bath, will assist in rapidly getting rid of the stored up mucus. As a rule it takes from three to six weeks to eliminate entirely the desire for tobacco. The time required depends upon how closely the directions are followed.

During the first few days, in the attempt to give up tobacco, the struggle is naturally the most trying. The silver nitrate solution and the gentian root are valuable aids, both of which, as stated, create a distaste for tobacco and make smoking undesirable. Being a metallic poison, the use of the silver nitrate solution should be continued only the first few days. By the end of the first week it will be recognized that the desire for tobacco has materially lessened. The consequences that the desire is becoming less naturally betrays confidence in the ability to conquer. After confidence is restored the battle is practically an easy one. Each week it will be found there will be a notable decrease of the craving, with a corresponding increase of confidence, determination, and will power.

THE CITY PAYS.

Chicago, Feb. 5.—(Friend of the People.)—Has the ordinance for widening Ashland avenue, north of Irving Park boulevard, been passed? Will the property be condemned on the east or west side of the street? On what basis will the property owners be assessed?

An ordinance has passed the city council for widening Ashland avenue between 47th and 53rd streets. Between 53rd and 63rd streets it is planned to take off ten feet from each side of the street.

The money will not pay for the property taken or damaged as soon as the assessment is collected. After the city has been paid, then the city will take possession. EDWARD J. GLACKIN, Secretary, Board of Local Improvements.

BONUS CLAIM.

Chicago, Feb. 5.—(Friend of the Soldier.)—I was working in a logging camp in Minnesota in the summer and fall of 1913 and enlisted in the United States army in that year and was sworn into the service at Fort Snelling. Received my discharge June 4, 1920. Would I come under the law entitling me to my state bonus and if so how would I go about securing it?

A. G. O.—The bonus bill states that the award is made to men who served in the United States army in the war with Germany and who entered from the state of Minnesota. Whether or not the fact that you did not enlist expressly for service in the late war makes any difference in your case we cannot say. We advise that you submit your case to the soldiers' bonus board, capital building, St. Paul, Minn., and let them decide for you.

DIVORCES COST MONEY.

Chicago, Feb. 5.—(To the Legal Friend of the People.)—My husband deserted me and my little girl over twenty months ago. As I do not hear from him, I should like to get a divorce, but have no money. Is there any place in the city I could get a divorce without cost? A. G. O.—TRIBUTE LAW DEPARTMENT.

ONE VIEW OF THE LACK OF BUILDING.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—(Editor of The Tribune.)—Everybody is agreed that the one thing needed to bring us back to normalcy is the revival of the building industry.

The merchant, the manufacturer, and the material men are asked to liquidate. The labor unions are asked to accept a reduction in wages in order that we may all get back to normalcy.

Has anybody suggested that the banks get back to normalcy? Five and one-half and 6 per cent, with commission of 1 to 2 1/2 per cent, used to be considered normal for building loans. The money the banks have to loan is costing them no more than it did in 1915—the 3 per cent rate they still pay the depositor for his savings.

Let me suggest to those who are forming renter's associations and to those clamoring for legislation to stop rent increases that they are chasing rainbows. Demand that the banks get back to normalcy on building loans. If the banks in Chicago and other large cities would come out openly and offer building loans at former rates of interest, and commission inside of sixty days, they would not be enough architects and contractors to take care of the business. All banks to normalcy. Why not the banks? P. S. KEATING.

ANOTHER VIEW OF THE SAME.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—(Editor of The Tribune.)—Let me tell C. B. and more like him that he is selling a half truth when he says the workingman is not holding up building in Chicago. The building trades and building laborers aided and abetted by the material men (think of common brick in this market, where clay is plentiful, at $16 per thousand) have certainly clamped the lid on.

Banks are not to blame; they cannot be. The depositor's money up for three or five years on mortgage notes that few people will buy. The average investor is afraid when he buys a present day mortgage that he is really buying the building and a foreclosure sale.

Remember this, however: unions can fix the wages, combinations can set prices for materials, but neither or both can force a man to go down in his pocket and build.

This "you first, Alphonse," will not work; it must be altogether and all along the line if you want to start a building boom worth while. P. F. K.

UNDERTAKING SOME JOB IF HE PLANS TO BAR BUNK FROM RAILWAY ROW.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—(Editor of The Tribune.)—Last the buncombe of J. J. Z. in yesterday's Vox Pop. "An Inside View of Railroadmen," as accepted as fact by uninformed readers, permit me to say that yardmasters were not by the roads prior to government control approximately $18 a month. Who got them substituted $200 per month? Who substituted them with two or three female assistants (if such is the case)? J. J. Z. knows that that liberty-crushing, initiative stifling combination known as organization did it, ably assisted by a thoroughly friendly-to-labor administration. J. J. Z. makes out a good case for the roads when he says "everything went fine" before government control, with less help than it has given since then with double the help. I'll wager fudge to doughnuts that J. J. Z. is either an outjob switchman who failed to get back his job, or is an ardent Plumb-planician.

FEMININE loveliness has ever been the favorite subject of the poet, the sculptor, and the painter. It dominates the world of fiction and romance. The whole civilized world is in accord in thinking that feminine beauty, allied with nobility of soul, is the highest type of creation. Every type of feminine beauty is found among the photographs being sent in for this Tribune's $20,000 beauty contest. Blonde vies with brunette. The saucy girl vies with her majestic sister. The central west is proving itself to be a section of beautiful girls.

THE TRIBUNE proposes to pay $20,000 in cash to the most beautiful girls in the section. Of this amount $10,000 will be awarded as a grand prize. In addition ten prizes will be distributed in each of the six territorial divisions—the city of Chicago, the state of Illinois outside of Chicago, the state of Indiana, the state of Iowa, the state of Michigan, and the state of Wisconsin.

The first prize in each of these divisions will be $1,000, the second prize $250, the third prize $100, and the remaining seven $50 each.

The grand prize winner will receive not only $10,000 but also $1,000 as winner of one of the territorial prizes.

The contest is open to every girl, unmarried or a widow, who resides anywhere in the five states, except professional beauties, such as actresses or artists' models.

She may live in the largest city in her state. She may live in an obscure hamlet. It makes no difference. With the three Art Institute judges it will be beauty alone that counts.

And it makes no difference if the girl be rich or poor. It makes no difference whether she be a clerk or a stenographer or a teacher or a waitress or a cashier.

But in sending in a photograph the occupation of the contestant MUST be given.

The rules are simple. Select a photograph of yourself or some girl friend and write plainly on the back of it the name, street address, and occupation of the entrant. If the girl has no occupation and is staying at home, state that she is a "home girl." If she is going to school or college say "student."

But do not forget to give the contestant's occupation. Otherwise the photograph will have to be eliminated from the contest.

When you have the photograph properly marked, send it to "Beauty Contest," CHICAGO TRIBUNE, 7 South Dearborn street, Chicago.

Photographs will be published in THE TRIBUNE daily and in the rotogravure section on Sunday until the close of the contest.

The contest closes on midnight, Saturday, April 9. No photograph will be accepted after that date.

Photographs will not be returned unless accompanied by a stamped and self-addressed envelope of proper size.

The contest has developed much rivalry. City and state pride has been aroused.

Some girl is going to win the grand prize. Will she come from Illinois, or Indiana, or Iowa, or Wisconsin, or Michigan?

Will she be a teacher or a student, a working girl or a girl who is staying at home, a cashier or a waitress, a stenographer or a factory girl, a telephone operator or a bookkeeper?

Will she be blonde or brunette? Who will she be?

RAILROAD PROBLEM.

Lawyer, Ill. Feb. 4.—(Editor of the Tribune.)—Referring to your editorial of Feb. 2 concerning another railroad crisis, believe there is no crisis. Attorneys representing railroad officials and management control were under government control to both sides with little annoyance to the public. Each side fought their own battles and there was no competition for business. In some cases some roads had much more labor than others. Some want less labor, while others (in some cases) want more. The same terminal (using the same commodities) made a difference. It seems one would have a station there was some difference in management. We would be safe to make a statement today.

do not believe any honest employer would favor paying a man for work done or time not put in, and there are dishonest railroad men.

I am a telephone operator and have been employed by one of the nation's largest railroad systems, whose labor policies never inconvenienced the public. Government control, has always been money, and whose president is taking on nothing, even now, but still service from his employees, who are presidents are telling us they are on the verge of bankruptcy.

Only those of us who operate an industry can see the difference. There are differences, others cannot realize the difference, in their management methods. It is no small wonder some are bankrupt.

THE PAY AND THE JOB.

Chicago, Feb. 6.—(Editor of the Tribune.)—In connection with the letter from the U. S. of Oak Park, published in your issue of Feb. 4, under the heading "The Railroad Men Begin Their Cut at the Wage," the following extract from an article which appeared in "The Railroad Men" (January, 1921), may be of interest and some mislaid ideas:

In the case of the United States Steel Corporation it has been figured out that all the so-called salaries were estimated, including officials, managers and salesmen, and this money was distributed among the working force, the pay of each worker would be increased 5 cents a day.

The American Telephone and Telegraph company estimates that if it allocated all the men receiving more than $100 a year and distributed this money among the workers who have been receiving less than $1,000 a year, the average pay would be increased exactly 5 cents a week.

From this it is obvious that none can hope to fatten our pay envelopes by taking money from those who are getting more than we are. Our best hope for getting more money lies in doing our particular task so well that we win a higher and better paid job.

CITY HALL PINS BOND ISSUE HOPE ON A LIGHT VOTE

Dons "Gumshoes" to Put
Over $8,000,000 Plan.

BY OSCAR E. HEWITT.

The board of strategy of the London Thompson organization has decided that the most important feature of the present aldermanic campaign is the proposed bond issue of $8,000,000 to pay the city's floating debt. Various officials of this camp were asked yesterday to contribute to a fund "to put over the bond issue," as one leader phrased it.

He added that every precinct in the entire city will be "manned" election day, regardless of whether there is an aldermanic candidate in each ward in which the city administration is interested.

The bond campaign is of the gumshoe variety. Quiet, house-to-house work has been substituted for the usual city hall methods of red fire, screaming banners, and the blare of bands.

Counts on Light Vote to Win.

The theory is that the city hall organization has sufficient strength to carry the bond issue, if there is a light vote. It reckons that it can deliver 70,000 votes as a minimum, which it believes will be sufficient to carry the bond issue at an uninteresting nonpartisan election for alderman.

Unusual care has been taken to date to prevent the arousing of any interest in the election and it is anticipated that the vote will be small despite the fact that the date is a holiday, Feb. 22.

Discussed in Two Wards.

In a few wards, the Fifth and the Twenty-third for examples, the candidates are telling the people of the desire of the administration for the $8,000,000 to pay its floating indebtedness. Ald. McDonough, Democrat, in the Fifth, and Ald. Wallace, Republican, in the Twenty-third, report every property owner is interested in the bond issue when informed about it. But there are other wards in which the candidates withhold information on this subject.

Mother Branded Children, Man Says; Court Quiz On

Investigation by the county social service bureau of charges made against Mrs. Anna Marie Cashin, 1514 Marquette road, in a divorce bill filed by her husband, David Cashin, a foreman of the Illinois Steel company, was ordered by Judge Sabath yesterday.

Cashin alleged his wife had punished her two children, Bryon, 4, and Grace, 7, by branding them with a hot iron and had scalded him with boiling water.

Pending the report of the bureau Judge Sabath ordered Cashin to pay his wife $25 a week and granted her custody of the children.

HERE ARE QUESTIONS TO ASK YOURSELF ON INCOME RETURN

Numerous inquiries have come to this Tribune income tax bureau as to just how the taxpayer is to determine what is income.

In the making of an income tax return for 1920 taxpayers of every class, business and professional men, wage earners, and farmers, should present to themselves for consideration the following questions:

Did you receive any interest on bank deposits?

Have you any property from which you receive rent?

Did you receive any income in the form of a dividend or interest from stocks and bonds?

Did you receive any bonuses during the year?

Did you receive any profit from the sale of stocks and bonds, or did you act as a broker in any transaction for which you received a commission?

Are you interested in any partnership or any other firm from which you received any income? Have you any income from royalties or patents?

Have you any minor children who are working, and have you control of such children? If so, the amount they earn must be included in your return of income.

If your wife has any income from any source whatsoever it must be included in your return or reported in a separate return of income.

Did you receive any director's fees or trustee's fees in the course of the year, or do you hold any office in any benefit society from which you receive any income?

Answers to all these questions are necessary to determine whether a taxpayer has a net income sufficiently large to require that he file a return.

R. B. asks: In order to charge off a bad debt, must we first bring a legal action to definitely determine that it is worthless?

REPLY:

No. Where all surrounding circumstances indicate that a debt is worthless and that legal action to enforce payment would in all probability not result in the satisfaction of execution on a judgment, a charge-off of the debt is warranted.

REPLY.

No. Where all surrounding circumstances indicate that a debt is worthless and that legal action to enforce payment would in all probability not result in the satisfaction of execution on a judgment, a charge-off of the debt is warranted.

RELEASED, MAN ASKS PROBE OF ELGIN ASYLUM

Threats of suits alleging false arrest, and agitation for investigation of conditions at the Elgin state hospital, followed the release from that institution yesterday of William H. Baker, 445 South Halsted street.

Baker had been confined at Elgin since Jan. 6. Brought before Judge Thomas Taylor on a writ of habeas corpus, he was adjudged sane. He charged, through Attorney Robert E. Cantwell Jr., he had been "railroaded" to the state hospital by political enemies. Baker explained that about the time he was arrested he had intended suing for an order from the Nineteenth ward.

Baker told Judge Taylor he was arrested Dec. 28 in the city hall, because he ignored the command of a policeman to "move along." Concerning his treatment at Elgin, he said he had been assaulted several times by attendants and that he was not given a bed any night he was there.

Sixty Inspectors to Eye Autos for City License

Proceeds of the city vehicle tax passed the $1,000,000 mark yesterday as Ald. Anton J. Cermak announced that for the next two weeks sixty inspectors will be on the lookout for motorists who have failed to pay their vehicle taxes. Ald. Cermak mailed letters yesterday to more than a hundred mayors of cities in northern Illinois requesting them to ask their city councils and village boards to pass ordinances requiring the display of vehicle tax plates and suggesting that the Chicago identification card system be adopted.

Burglars Raid 3 Homes; Loot Totals Over $6,000

Three burglaries, in which the amounts in each case exceeded $2,000, were reported to the police yesterday. Albert M. Barnes, 4641 Magnolia avenue, said burglars looted his place early yesterday morning of rugs and valuables; Dr. Harold H. Weaver, 5005 Drexel boulevard, and Samuel Kohn, 5039 Dorchester avenue, also reported that their houses had been raided.

CROWE RALLIES SUBURB CHIEFS FOR CRIME WAR

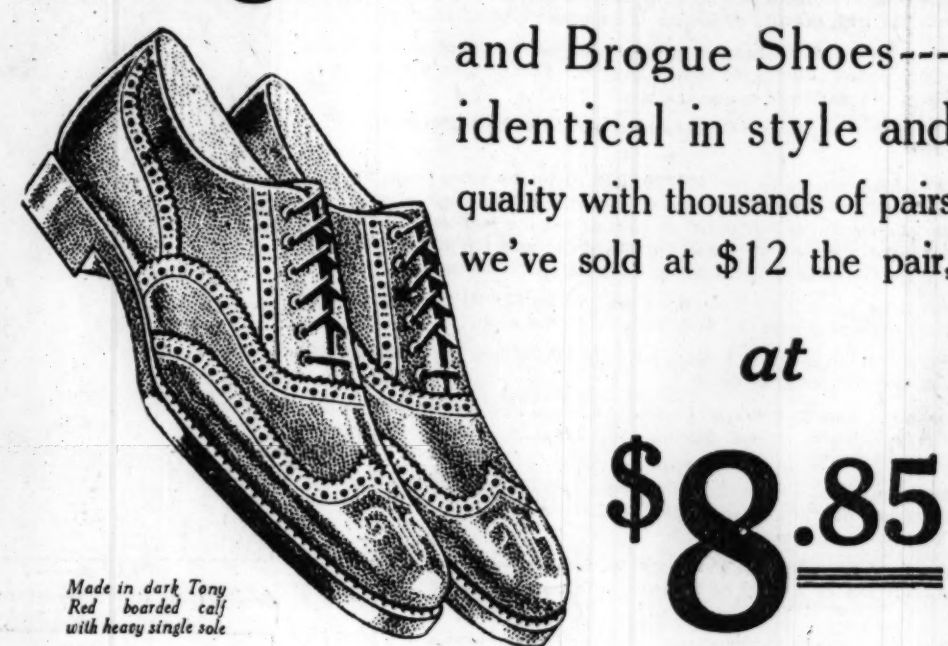

While the grand jury heard evidence yesterday against twenty Cook county gamblers, State's Attorney Crowe tightened his gambling and vice net by summoning eighteen police chiefs from nearby suburbs and asking their cooperation in his drive.

"There will always be crime, gambling, and vice," he told them, "but we can minimize them by hard work. It is my purpose to stamp out open gambling and vice. With your aid it can be done inside of a year and a half. I rely on you. The Chicago chief of police is giving us perfect cooperation."

"What should our attitude be regarding cigar and candy punch boards?" asked J. E. Tomlinson, Harvey chief.

"Stop them," replied the prosecutor. Among the county police officers attending Mr. Crowe's conference were: Thomas Stone, Chicago Heights; B. H. Ryker, Oak Park; Fred Light, Forest Park; George Fiedler, Blue Island; Chief Liggett, Evanston, and Louis Sweeney, Maywood.

What Any Army Doctor Will Tell You About These Diseases

HE will tell you that these so-called "unmentionable diseases" can be successfully treated. He will tell you how successfully these ailments were treated in the army during the war—how the percentage of infection was reduced from as high as 35% in some drafts to 2%. He will tell you that no person afflicted should give up hope, no matter how acute or chronic he may think his case to be.

Help for the Afflicted

Every person infected should know the facts about these diseases. And every afflicted one living in Chicago or the vicinity should know of the service available at the PUBLIC HEALTH INSTITUTE. Here, the best of medical care and treatment is afforded every case, regardless of the financial condition of the person.

Founded by Prominent Citizens

The Public Health Institute is the work of the prominent business men named here. These men have organized the Institute, not for gain, but wholly in the interest of the public health and good.

These men realize the prevalence of the so-called "social" diseases and the menace to our manhood and womanhood. And as a public duty, they are carrying on through the Institute the work so well advanced by our army surgeons during the war.

The Benefits

At the Institute you will receive the benefit of the services of physicians of known competence, who have at their disposal, every modern facility existing in the treatment of these diseases. This includes a complete laboratory service, so necessary in making diagnosis.

The Institute employs the very same method of treatment which was so successfully used in the army during the war.

The purpose of the Institute is to make the fees as low as possible consistent with the highest standard of medical service. No one need forego the benefits for lack of money.

Call Any Time

Call at any hour for consultation. Call for treatments when most convenient for you. There is every provision for privacy.

Everyone interested in the work of the Institute is invited to call for or write for the facts. Complete explanatory booklet sent by mail under plain cover.

Hours: Daily 10:30 a. m. to 8:30 p. m.

SUNBART, UNDER CHARGES, FIRED TWICE BEFORE

Circumstances which caused the city and service commission to dismiss and re-arrest Jonas Sunbart, Negro policeman, on two occasions preceding his dismissal a week ago on charges of attempting to attack a white woman were made public yesterday by Commissioner Joseph P. Geary.

Sunbart was dismissed from the force before his latest trouble, once in 1912 and again in 1920. Following his dismissal in 1912 he remained off the force until March 3, 1919, when he was reinstated after filing a petition saying he was a returned soldier.

Taxi Episode Costs Job.

His second dismissal came on June 1, 1920, when Patrol Sergt. F. D.

Corcoran of the Fifth street station, known as a strict disciplinarian, testified he found Sunbart intoxicated and brandishing a revolver in a taxicab with a white woman.

A week after this dismissal Sunbart filed a petition for reinstatement and four months later the commission entered the order.

For three months Sunbart made repeated efforts to get back on the force. Commissioner Geary said, "Commissioner Johnson and myself refused repeatedly to enter the order. Finally on Oct. 27, when we permitted the case to come up for rehearing, I called Sergt. Corcoran, prosecuting witness, before the commission."

"Punished Enough."

"I told him of the petition. He said he thought Sunbart had been punished enough. I then entered the reinstatement order, Commissioner Johnson concurring."

President Charles E. Frazier, who did not sit either as a member of the trial board or the rehearing board, commented on the case as follows:

"I sometimes think it would be better never to permit the reinstatement of a man who has been dismissed from the force. This would protect the commission from blame for the actions of reinstated policemen. On the other hand, such a policy would often work an injustice to the men, for there are many cases in which reinstated men make excellent officers after their return."

BUSINESS MEN AND MAYOR WILL PLAN PAGEANT

Sixteen of Chicago's best known business men will meet with Mayor Thompson this afternoon to name a representative from each important line of business to take charge of the distribution of space on the municipal pier for the Pageant of Progress to be held in Chicago July 30 to Aug. 14, inclusive.

Among those who will meet with the mayor this afternoon are Samuel Insull, Thomas E. Wilson, John H. Gehlhardt, D. P. Kelly, Charles S. Riemann, and Health Commissioner Robertson.

MISSING CO-ED FOUND IN CHORUS AT OIL CITY, PA.

Marion Frances Williams, daughter of Mrs. John Williams of 1522 Sunny-side avenue, who was a student at the University of Illinois until last Wednesday, was found yesterday in Oil City, Pa., where she was a member of the chorus of a theatrical company. When the girl left school her parents were notified by the officials at Chicago, and a search was started for her.

Her mother declared her daughter was engaged to a Harvard student, whose name she refused to give.

BETTER NO AIR MAIL THAN DEAD FLYERS—PREUS

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 10.—Immediate investigation of the mail airplane accident at La Crosse yesterday, which resulted in three deaths, is asked by Gov. J. A. O. Preus of Minnesota, in a telegram dispatched tonight to the postmaster general at Washington.

Discontinuance of the Chicago-Twin Cities air mail service is preferable to further sacrifice of life by its operation with "obsolete equipment," the governor said. He also called to attention the mail plane accident near Mendota, Minn., a week ago, when one man was killed and another injured.

Urges Investigation.

"The death of four flyers and the serious injury to another within six days, in addition to numerous forced landings due to motor trouble, prompts me to urge an immediate investigation of the equipment in use and the management of the air mail station at St. Paul," Gov. Preus' telegram said.

"With the air mail service in other sections of the country running more than 90 per cent, it must be conceded that the Twin City-Chicago service, which runs approximately only 20 per cent, is seriously faulty."

"Unanimously Condemned."

"Reliable technical authorities inform me that poor showing of the service is due primarily to the obsolete equipment in use. It is said that the twice redesigned De Havilland ship at its best is none too good, but the death of the three flyers at La Crosse amounts almost to manslaughter, since the J.L. all metal monoplane is unanimously condemned by the best aeronautical authorities in the country."

"Minnesota desires and needs the air mail service, but it would be better to discontinue it than to sacrifice further lives."

The Plane's Case—Pro and Con.

Paul L. Dumas, manager of the Chicago air mail station, declared the machine in which Pilots W. L. Carroll of Minneapolis and Arthur Rowe of Chicago and Mechanician Robert E. Hill lost their lives did not explode in the air. Every witness to the accident told him the explosion came after the machine struck the earth, he said, adding that he found no explanation of the dive. The metal plane, he declared, was the best type the service has. E. W. Major, superintendent of the Cleveland-Columbus division of the United States air mail service, also said the explosion came after the plane struck the ground.

Rufus Riddlebarger, secretary of the Air Mail Pilots of America, said the "Junker" type of plane was responsible for the accident. The Germans originated the plane, he said, and discontinued its use because of its tendency to catch fire. He asserted that since the government had begun using the planes in the mail service there had been three fatal accidents and seven deaths.

"Many pilots refuse to fly them," he added.

J. F. Christensen, president of the Associated Air Mail Pilots, issued a statement substantially in agreement with that of Riddlebarger.

AHA! RAFFLES CAUGHT IN ACT IN WHITE HOUSE

Newspaper Men Make Daring Capture.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., Feb. 10.—(Special)—A well dressed little man wearing a cutaway coat and tortoiseshell spectacles—a veritable Raffles—was surprised by newspaper men today in the cabinet room of the White House executive offices while he was in the act of lifting a brass plate from the chair which has been occupied since March 9, 1919, by Secretary of War Newton D. Baker.
"The little man had his back to the door when the reporters entered the room stealthily. He was so busily engaged with his pocket knife endeavoring to pry the brass plate from the chair that he did not heed the intruders."
"Ah," the little man exclaimed at a moment's exertion, "now I've got you."
"And we've got you," shouted one of the newspaper men as the Raffles of the White House turned. Then the surprised reporters found themselves looking straight into the tortoiseshell rimmed optics of none other than Newton D. Baker himself.
"Well, boys," he said, "you've got me and I will confess," as he held up the brass plate bearing the inscription: "Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War, March 9, 1919."
"You may call it lifting the foot if you will," continued the secretary, "but I want this plate as a souvenir of my stewardship."
"For mitigating circumstances," the secretary took the reporters into the room and showed them how he had been preceded by other light fingered cabinet officials. Plates were missing from the chairs of the secretaries of state, commerce, and interior and the attorney general.
"All those fellows beat me to it," the secretary said.

THE BANK OF KINDNESS

Draw a Check on It for the Unfortunate.

BY REV. G. A. MAC WHORTER.

The first large subscription, $5,000, to the building, equipment, and endowment fund for the Chicago Junior Home and Farm for Boys has been received from A. G. Cox, who, with Mrs. Cox, is now in California for the winter.

In March a one week campaign will be held to raise $250,000 for "Chicago Junior," which maintains a home and school on a fifty acre farm on the St. Joe river, near Lake Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox have been life members of "Chicago Junior" since 1912, contributing many thousand dollars besides their time and interest toward the success of the school.

Expressing confidence that Chicago will reach its quota of $1,000,000 in the present drive for funds for the European relief council, Herbert Hoover, in the city yesterday, voiced a hope that the total will reach $1,100,000, or even $1,200,000.

Mr. Hoover was impressed by the fact that most of the gifts are small amounts, spelling sacrifices by thousands of donors.

With the aid of the large Armenian colony in Waukegan, that city is rapidly approaching its $15,000 quota for the Near East relief fund.

Evanston Woman Bruised as Gasoline Is Ignited
Mrs. David McCurrach of Evanston, prominent member of clubs and wife of one of the owners of McCurrach & McCurrach, wholesale haberdashers, was severely burned last night when a pall of gasoline in which she was cleaning a waist ignited. She was taken to the Evanston hospital, where it was found she had been burned on the face, hands, arms and shoulders.

MAN WHO STOLE FROM CITY PAYS $10 FOR SHEETS

For fourteen years M. E. Henderson, Dodd of Waltsburg, Wash., has worried over the theft of $10 worth of sheets from the Warren avenue police station, where he was employed as a janitor in 1907.

The sheets were too big for the beds. In a way they were no good to the city of Chicago. But they were the city's property. That is what worried Dodd.

Yesterday a postal money order for $10 reached Chief of Police Fitzmorris. Dodd had sent it to "Desk Sergeant Goodman" at the Warren avenue station. Goodman left the force twelve years ago and has been dead several years.

The money order finally reached a relative of Dodd, who lives at 4349 Kenmore avenue, and was sent on to the chief.

"I am sending this order for this sum, as my Lord says you must restore what you have taken to be forgiven," Dodd wrote.
"If he is square with the Lord he is square with the department," said Chief Fitzmorris. "We will consider the debt paid."

The Problem of PET ANIMALS

THE YOUNG person's affection for animals, as so many parents find, is but a passing phase, like baby talk and measles, knickerbockers and hair ribbons. The precious pup of a year ago grows into commonplace dogdom; the petted pussy pines with neglect; the cherished canary, the white mice, the gregarious guinea pig and the paraphrase parrot become minor interests to their young owners. And the question is, what to do with them?

Advertise them in a Tribune Want Ad, and pass them along to other folks who really want them—want them enough to pay for them! The want ad will turn a household liability into an asset!

If, on the other hand, you are looking for a dog or a bird, or even a mount, consult again this great directory of desires! State your want in a Want Ad. Easiest, quickest, most convenient way of finding either a Persian kitten or a pony. Try it!

PERSONAL

ROMANCE and the sternest of realities rub elbows under this caption. Fortunes seek heirs and heirs seek happiness. Love and legacies look for their possessors. You can address the universe and page a particular person in a Personal Want Ad! Use one when you need it!

Renting the Furnished Apartment

HIGH RENTS make it prohibitively expensive to hold an apartment vacant. It is possible not only to make a vacant furnished apartment pay for itself, but also pay a profit.

In this day of insufficient dwellings no living space need go to waste. Advertise the apartment by means of a Tribune Want Ad, and you reach the most desirable tenants—Tribune readers.

Listing the apartment in The Tribune Furnished Apartment classification is the quickest and surest way of renting.

Because your offer reaches so many people a suitable tenant is quickly found. If you must leave town for a while, or intend to spend part of the winter in the South, or plan to be away next summer, don't leave your home and castle empty when so many people want a desirable place to live, even temporarily. It's not sensible nor economical, nor necessary, when Tribune Want Ads offer such a happy solution.

Barter and Exchange

A MARVELOUS catalogue of concrete wants: Mail order business for billiard parlors, phonographs for plumbing, oil paintings for oil stock, adding machines for automobiles, guitar for gun, carpentry for clothing, lots for limousines, angora cats for anything, or what have you? An easy, effective way of substituting something for satisfaction—a wonderfully direct way of doing business, and it works—well! Use it! Tell Tribune readers what you have, what you want, and you will connect!

The Dinner Dresses of Yesteryear

MY DEAR! I've heard of finding money in old furniture, but I simply never thought of finding any in old clothes! Our closets proved to be a gold mine.

You know, one can't give party frocks or dinner dresses away—even to the Armenians. And as mother and I don't go to formals every night or teas every afternoon, we never wear them out. A dozen times or so—and then we have to have something new, or people will talk!

So all these perfectly good dresses have been piling up and taking wardrobe space, and we didn't know what to do with them. Well, I wanted some money for our Alumnae Fund—and I got a perfectly gorgeous idea!

Mother and I gathered up a number of them—the little blue thing I wore three seasons ago, and the mauve georgette, and the green chiffon with the funny sleeves, and the ducky silver brocade that went so well with mother's white hair, and oh—a lot of them! And then I wrote a Want Ad—a masterpiece, really, just like the fashion news—and 'phoned it to The Tribune.

The very next morning, almost before I was up, my first customer came. She was a working girl, and just wanted a frock she could wear every once in a while. She liked the chiffon and offered me fifteen dollars for it. Then two more girls came, and took three of them between them. And a woman who worked and had a flapper daughter at school bought one, and then asked me if I'd sell the old red coat I wore two seasons ago! She couldn't spend very much on the girl, she said, and she was delighted with my old dresses. A little alteration and they'd do splendidly for this girl at school, and who would ever know where they came from? I thought she was very clever.

And then the queerest man called, and bought the others! I simply couldn't imagine what he wanted with them—so I asked him! You wouldn't guess in a lifetime! He was a customer who furnished gowns for actresses! Wasn't that perfectly thrilling?

Well, I made over a hundred dollars, and had the largest gift to the Fund! Some little business woman, father said. And it was so easy. I'm going to write another ad some day, and sell some of our furniture. I never dreamed one could make money so easily! Your European Children pledge? My dear, we'll have to compose a want ad for you!

Closing Hour

Classified advertising intended for all editions of the Sunday issue should be in by 9 p. m. Friday. City and suburban editions close at 2 p. m. Saturday. Help Wanted and Situation Wanted Ads are now admitted to all editions.

PHONE your Want Ad to The Tribune. Call Central 100 and ask for an Adtaker.

OR VISIT the Want Ad Store, First floor, Tribune Building, Madison and Dearborn. Special service department for women.

THE CIRCULATION of The Chicago Sunday Tribune last Sunday, February 6, was 840,000 COPIES—a new high record! This great increase in the already enormous circulation of The Sunday Tribune means that Sunday Tribune Want Ads now bring more results, that want advertisers now get more for their money!

As our circulation grows, as more people read The Sunday Tribune, more of them see your Want Ad. The more readers your Ad has, the more results it brings.

There are 17,000,000 people in the five states—Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan and Wisconsin—where The Sunday Tribune is read. In this great group of intelligent, prosperous people there is always somebody who can use what you have to offer, satisfy any want ad need of yours, furnish what you want to find! One family in every five of these 17,000,000 people read The Sunday Tribune.

In no other way can you notify so many people at once of what you want; in no other way can you have that want filled so easily, so quickly, so conveniently! Don't neglect to use Sunday Tribune Want Ads!

"1921 Will Reward FIGHTERS"

THIS is the salesman's year.

Big opportunities await the man who can move goods.

This is the open season for producers, the men who get names on the dotted line, whose customers send in checks instead of cancellations.

If you are this type of man, a real salesman, who can get down to a man-to-man basis with a prospect, overcome adverse opinion, banish business bogies, inspire vision, breed confidence, and sell goods sanely, truthfully, so that they stay sold, this is your year!

Business wants your ability.

Opportunity awaits you.

More money, better jobs, real futures, will come to you—if you tell employers where you are!

DON'T wait for an order for your ability to come in. Go after it, sell yourself!

Make your offer to the firm that needs you through The Tribune Situation Wanted ads. Advertised ability, like any other advertised product, sells more quickly, more easily.

If you are a salesman you must realize the advantage of this kind of advertising. It is especially adapted to you. Use it—at once!

If You Want a Business of Your Own,

want a new business, help for your present business, brains or backing, you should use "Business Chances." This is one of the most remarkable departments in the whole Sunday Tribune Want Ad Section. Stores and businesses change hands by means of it, partners are found and liabilities are turned into assets because of it. Any legitimate business proposition from delicatessen stores to deep sea diving contracts will get a hearing through a Tribune Want Ad in this column.

WHATEVER your business needs are, whatever your problems are, they can be supplied or solved by this universally useful little medium—The Tribune Want Ad.

CAMERAS

have become scarce and costly since the war and are always in demand.

If you have lost your interest in this elusive art you can turn your camera into cash by means of a Tribune Want Ad; or if you look for new fields on which to focus and want new or better photographic apparatus, the insertion of a Want Ad under this classification will bring you bargains. Photographers and camera enthusiasts follow these ads; make them a veritable market.

UTILITIES FACE CRISIS, RAILWAY MEN ARE TOLD

Wilkerson Warns of the Danger of Panic.

"Financial panic, general pandemonium, and ultimate public ownership" are the public utilities of the United States, according to James H. Wilkerson, former chairman of the Illinois public utilities commission. Mr. Wilkerson so stated before the midyear conference of the American Electric Railway association at the Drake hotel last night.

The only hope for the salvation of the public utilities of the country is an intensive campaign to bring before the people the truth of the situation, he said.

Mr. Wilkerson declared public ownership of the steam railroads was only averted by "one of the most thorough campaigns of education ever carried on in this country."

Raps 5 Cent Fare Talk.

"The 5 cent fare has become impossible," he declared. "Wages and prices have increased 100 per cent. The purchasing power of the dollar has been cut in two. Yet it was contended that the street car companies must continue to operate on a 5 cent fare."

Mevin A. Traylor, president of the First Trust & Savings bank of Chicago, urged the adoption of a "service-at-cost" plan of operation with municipal financial aid as the solution of the problem faced by the utilities.

Roads in Good Shape.

In a general report issued by the association, it was stated that the condition of electric railways in the United States at the beginning of 1921 is encouraging. The report shows that in 64 cities, representing 99 per cent of the riding population, the rates of fare range from 5 cents, with a one cent transfer, to a flat 10-cent rate. Cities paying 10 cents now number 112; 8 cent fares, 6; 7 cent fares, 174; and 6 cent fare, 124.

Take Steps to Protect Toilers Who Buy Stocks

At the conference of the Better Business bureau secretaries yesterday at the Hotel Sherman they discussed the "Before You Invest, Investigate" campaign, which is to be carried on in industrial plants to protect employees against fake stock promoters. A key man, unknown to the employees, will investigate all stocks that are offered for sale.

Woman's Purchase Prelude to a $300 Store Robbery

Adolph Sucech of 4125 Roosevelt road reported to the police at 2 o'clock this morning that he had been held up at 7 o'clock last night and robbed of $300. He said a woman came into the store to buy some apples. Sucech started for them. Two men entered with drawn revolvers. They drove away in a closed touring car.

"Why didn't you report the robbery sooner?" the desk sergeant asked.

"I couldn't find a nickel till just now," Sucech replied.

THE VOCALION
"VALUE"
described below is unusually great, and decidedly opportune.

In that vacant space

If, in your home, there is a vacant space where you plan to place a phonograph "some day," why not now?

Fill it with a Vocalion.

After supper tonight, you would have all the pleasure that "something new" brings.

It is fun to operate a phonograph. It is twice as much fun if the phonograph is a Vocalion, because then you really do something besides making mechanical adjustments.

You play the Vocalion with the Graduola. It is play. There is no "learn how." The Graduola is a flexible, expanding "throat." You learned how to use a throat years ago.

An Invitation

A cordial invitation is extended to you to call at our Vocalion salons and hear the Vocalion and play it for yourself. It does not require any learning. The moment the Graduola is taken in hand, its use is instinctively understood.

Special: Today and Saturday

We will deliver to your home the beautiful Vocalion (illustrated above) complete with twenty record selections, for a very moderate cash payment and

CARTER OF CUBS TRADED FOR TWO PROMISING STARS

BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

Nick Carter is no longer one of the Cubs. The tall utility pitcher, who spent most of the last few summers warming up in the bull pen, was traded yesterday to Kansas City in exchange for Pittsburgher Harry Weaver and infielder Hoke Warner. The deal was closed by President Veeck after he returned from Pittsburgh, where he saw Weaver and was assured the young man would join the team.

Weaver had a trial with the Cubs three years ago and showed considerable ability, but left early in the season to get into the service. Last year he made good in the big minors and appears to have something that belongs to the majors. As a raw recruit three years ago, he displayed a wonderful curve ball though at that time he had little control of it.

Warner Glad for Big Chance. Hoke Warner performed at third base for Kansas City two seasons ago and then quit the game last year except for some semi-pro playing around Pittsburgh. He assured President Veeck that he would arrange to return to the game this season, especially when given an opportunity in the big league. He will be one of three or four candidates for the third base job.

President Veeck was somewhat surprised yesterday to receive a letter from Charley Hollocher, who already is in Pasadena, having arrived there with his wife more than a week ago. He stated he was eager to get a little outdoor work ahead of the regulars, Alexander, Vaughn, Martin, and Deal are the other early ones now on the coast doing road work at Catalina Island.

Ground Keeper Goes West. Bobby Dorr, ground keeper of the north side park, departed yesterday with a sack full of home plates and pitchers' slabs to install at the Pasadena camp. Also, he will see that the diamond is properly maintained for the coming of the Evers squad. Dorr will go over to Catalina to set in a few slabs and home plates for the pitchers now there.

According to baseball experts and fans of the southwest, the White Sox have in young Catcher Yaryan, a recruit far above the average. A few of the stockholders of the Tulsa club were in Chicago yesterday and they were fellows who saw Yaryan perform for the Wichita club all last year. One of them thinks so highly of the new Sox man that he wagers with a friend that he would be kept by the Sox to work on the catching staff with Ray Schalk.

RUETHER WANTS BETTER CONTRACT
FROM BROOKLYN
San Francisco, Feb. 10.—Holding that it costs $2 a day more to live in Brooklyn than in Cincinnati, Walter "Dutch" Ruether, Cincinnati pitcher, who was traded to Brooklyn last week, is still short one park club. It is thought that for the coming season the league will have eight park clubs which, with two traveling clubs, will complete the league.

American Giants Dodge
the Continental League
John M. Schorling states that the American Giants will not join the new Continental league. It took five years to form a league of eight colored clubs, according to Schorling, and today the league is still short one park club. It is thought that for the coming season the league will have eight park clubs which, with two traveling clubs, will complete the league.

Landis Aid in Cincinnati for Commission's Records
Cincinnati, O., Feb. 10.—Attorney Leslie M. O'Connor of Chicago, secretary to Judge K. M. Landis, baseball commissioner, paid his first official visit to Cincinnati today. He came for the purpose of conferring with John E. Bruce, former secretary of the national commission, and to remove the records of the old commission to the offices of Judge Landis.

GASOLINE ALLEY—LOOKING THE FELLOWS OVER

UNIFORM STATE LAWS ON BASEBALL BRIBING, NATIONAL LEAGUE AIM

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Lawmakers making it a felony to have any part in crooked baseball will be sought in every state in which the National league operates, John A. Heydler, president, said here today.

He denied Garry Herrmann had been sent before the Ohio legislature to lobby for such a bill in the Buckeye state, saying he had gone of his own volition.

"We would like to have uniform laws passed in every major league state," Heydler said. "But this seems impossible. We would then like to get a law making it a felony to offer or accept a bribe for the purpose of influencing a game. The penalty should be imprisonment, not a fine."

ANTI-JOHNSONS NOT TO ATTEND MEETING OF A. L.

New York, Feb. 10.—Col. Jacob Ruppert and T. L. Huston, owners of the New York Americans, will not be represented at the American league meeting in Cleveland tomorrow, it was announced at club headquarters tonight.

Harry Frazee, owner of the Boston Americans, and Charles Comiskey of the White Sox, other members of the "insurgent trio" of clubs, also will be absent, it was said.

DAUBERT MAY DESERT REDS

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 10.—[Special.]—Jake Daubert, first baseman of the Cincinnati Reds, is the prospective manager of the Minersville, Pa., baseball team. Daubert is a holdout and a group of business men in Minersville have asked him to take hold of the upstate team. Daubert's home is in Schuylkill-Haven and it is said he is anxious to be near his business in the summer months. The team will play three games weekly.

REDSKIN TO UMP IN MINOR LEAGUE

Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 10.—David Puckee, an Indian, of Mayetta, Kas., is to be given a trial as umpire in the Piedmont league, composed of six North Carolina clubs, W. G. Bramham, president of the league, wrote today in reply to Puckee's application.

"Big Indian got job. Come, bring tomahawk, big and sharper. Lots of fight. Heav war dances by Sept. 12. Heav scalps in belt if poor Indian not in happy hunting grounds. Won't need topee. Umpire no sleep. Bring medicine doctor instead. If married, bring squaw, make good living selling paint."

Chicago Owner's Boat Sets World Sailing Record

Miami, Fla., Feb. 10.—A new world's record for open displacement boats was established today when Adieu, owned by Webb-Jay of Chicago, snatched the Carl G. Fisher gold trophy from Rainbow, owned by H. B. Greening of Hamilton, Ontario, and in a fifteen mile breeze and choppy sea wrested the American championship from the Canadian craft over a two mile course for a distance of fifty miles. The time was 1 hour and 18 minutes.

British College Golfers to Send Team to America

CAMBRIDGE, Feb. 10.—Cambridge University Golf club has accepted an invitation to send a team to compete in the American intercollegiate championship tournament. Four men will comprise the team and will sail for the United States in the middle of June.

PURDUE HAS CHANCE TO END MAROON DUAL TRACK WINS TONIGHT

The local college track season will be inaugurated tonight when University of Chicago and Purdue hook up in a dual meet at Bartlett gymnasium. The Maroons and the Boilermakers are getting a jump on most of the other Big Ten schools, several of which are just starting practices.

Little is known of the strength of either team, but the Maroon squad was so riddled by graduation last spring that the men from Lafayette may be able to slip over their first win in the long series between the two universities.

Three "C" Men Left. With Capt. Speer, Otis, Higgins, Moore, Kennedy, Bowers, and Jones, "C" men of last year, all graduated, only three Chicago letter men are left.

Harry, quarter miler; Bartky, quarter and half miler, and Hall, hurdler.

The freshman material last year was not particularly promising, but Coach Tom Eck, who has been drilling the squad while Director Stargz took over the basketball team, has been working diligently to fill the vacancies. Bell, sprinter, and Fouche, weight man, are ineligible at present, further handicapping the green midway team.

Swim Meet Postponed. The Chicago-Minnesota swimming meet, also scheduled for tonight, has been postponed at the request of the Gophers.

NOTES OF THE GOLFERS.

The Garfield Golf shop, 3800 West Madison street, has opened an indoor school, George Frie and James Gourlay being the instructors.

James D. Hartnett, who has been assisting in promoting the team of professional golfers to play in the British open championship, has closed his Chicago office and will leave today for New York.

WEST VIRGINIA NAT CAPTAIN.

Morgantown, W. Va., Feb. 10.—[Special.]—Scott Hough, a junior from Wellsburg, W. Va., was today elected captain of the wrestling team at West Virginia university. He wrestles in the 135 pound class, and has not lost a bout this season.

TALES OF ATEE-BOE TOURIST

BY JOE DAVIS.
BOB WHISTLER is the head of the art department of a metropolitan daily paper. He prefers tennis to golf, but long hours at his desk unfitted him for the strenuous activity of the courts, so his wife suggested he take up golf.

"All right," said Bob. "But I don't want to be bothered by picking out a set of clubs. You got them."

Two days later his better half announced she had bought clubs and bag.

"Where are they?" queried Bob. "I left them at the store to have the handies made shorter," answered the missus.

"So I could play with them," responded his better half.

"That is as far as I got with my golf," says Bob.

LANGFORD LOSES IN GOLF TOURNEY

Palm Beach, Fla., Feb. 10.—[Special.]—Hugh L. Willoughby Jr. of the Merion Cricket club, and George C. Heintzman of the Lambton Country club, Toronto, won their way into the final of the south Florida championship tournament over the Palm Beach club links today.

Close matches marked the play, Willoughby putting off William B. Langford of Glen Oak, Chicago, 1 up after having been 1 down on the turn. Heintzman advanced at the expense of R. C. Maxwell of Trenton, 2 and 1.

C. E. Browne President of

GOLFERS, HERE'S DOPE CALLED WEED KILLER, WHILE AID TO GRASS

Chairmen of greens committees of local clubs doubtless were interested in a statement issued by the State College of Agriculture of Rhode Island that ammonium sulphate would kill weeds but make the grass grow thickly. It is prescribed as a lawn fertilizer instead of nitrate of soda, which also makes grass grow, but on which weeds thrive equally well.

Tom Bendelow, dean of the golf architects, said yesterday the use of ammonium sulphate is by no means new, and that while it dries up the plant it does not kill the root.

Dandelions are the greatest pest of the greens keepers, and so far only one method of eradicating them has been successful. This consists of taking something in the shape of an ice pick, piercing the center of the plant, and dropping sulphuric or some other acid into the hole. This kills the roots.

Cutting the plants out with knives is the most common form of removal, but the roots are not killed and the stems come up in increased numbers.

Mr. Bendelow asserts a fortune is in store for the man who can find some chemical which will kill weeds and not destroy the grass.

INDUSTRIAL BALL CLUBS RECEIVE OPENING CALL

Chairman Avery Brundage of the Chicago Association of Commerce Athletic committee has issued the opening call to the baseball teams of industrial and commercial firms of the city to compete in the Chicago Industrial Athletic league this season. Practically all the teams which played in the league last year, with several new ones, have signified their intention to battle for the industrial championship. The plans for conducting the league are practically the same as last season. The teams will be enrolled in zones of eight teams each. The season will open Saturday, May 7, and continue fourteen weeks. The leading team in each zone will compete in the post-season games to decide the championship.

Newest Themes of Fashion Find Expression in Misses' Spring Coats and Suits

New modes come every day. Modes which, by their new and different expressions of style, instantly appeal to youth. These very differences take form in such charmingly varied ways that no preference, it would seem, has been left unconsidered.

Misses' New Coats at $75 Achieve Much Smartness By "Mandarin" Lines

That this is a mode newly created is evidenced in the bell sleeves, the flaring, unbelted back and long Tuxedo revers extending from shoulder to hem.

In gray with blue facing, and in Sorrento blue faced with just that gray best adapted to this blue. At right.

Little niceties of detail always associated with apparel individually made are seen in all these collections. And, withal, there's an adherence to fine quality in this apparel which takes no thought of pricing.

Fourth Floor, South.

The Vogue of French Knots An Entirely New Note in Misses' Suits at $145

Of tricotine is this suit—the very newest arrival in the section. The ever-present bell sleeve, the binding and ties of grosgrain ribbon are noted.

The unique collar adds distinction. This suit may also be had in women's sizes. Sketched at left.

An Excellent Corset May Be Had at $3.25

A corset designed with that care which is usual only in corsets higher in price.

Lines are those which meet the needs of the heavier type of figure. Lines so skillfully handled there is no uncomfortable restraint.

The top is low, the skirt very long, the boning just sufficient.

Very handsome silk broche is used in developing this model. So that fabric as well emphasizes the excellent value in this corset priced at $3.25.

Schoolgirls' "First" New Hats for Spring

In the Most Charming Colors And in Modes Equally Delightful

Girls are all choosing their spring hats these days. Springtime, not far off, must be provided for. Unusual thought has been given to see that every new feature is at its best and loveliest in these hats

At $7.50, $8.75 and $10

This spring's millinery fabrics are combined with straws or silks in many interesting new ways. And one sees in this collection that hats of Batavia cloth, embroidered in contrasting colors, are a charming addition to the season's modes.

There Are Bright Fruits, Vivid-toned Flowers

And graceful ribbon pendant trimmings all give a touch which makes them seem fashion details especially chosen for youth.

Specially Priced—New Frocks For Misses $55

They're of crepe de Chine. And never has this favored fabric been more skillfully used than in these very frocks, which make their first appearance now.

Tiny Buttons Point the Way From Elbow to Shoulder

And the motifs which are applied upon the skirt are veritable "wheels within wheels" of accordion pleated ribbon.

This frock may be chosen in brown, navy blue and gray. Truly distinctive, and priced unusually low. Sketched.

Many and Different Styles

Young women see how completely and charmingly their spring frock requirements have been anticipated here.

At every turn are new frocks for every occasion, and all interestingly priced.

The February Sale Introduces Misses' Radium Silk Blouses Tailored in Line, Yet in No Way Severe

Delightfully youthful styles. Just the sort that young women choose in great numbers to vary the jaunty smartness of spring suits.

A Tucked Gilet Front and Narrow Black Cravat in Blouses at $8.50

That's the blouse at right. The round collar is new and very becoming. The tailored air is further carried out by the turn-back cuffs and trimness of the shoulder line.

Mannish Cuffs on Blouses at $5.75

This blouse, of fine radium silk, owes success to its smart collar, which has been specially designed, and looks its "best" whether worn inside or outside suit-coat collars. Sketched at left.

Other silk blouses of this tailored type in the February Sale vary in price from $8.50 to $15.

For Schoolgirls—New Silk Frocks Lovely Enough to Go to Valentine Parties

They're all new. Chosen now, they will make their bow at parties on St. Valentine's day, and will serve delightfully as a "dress for best" later on.

Their success is assured, for with many unique touches which appeal to young girls they combine sensible features about which mothers are most particular.

Frocks of Taffeta at $16.50 Are Dark in Color

And so, may every little girl's wish for a silk dress be met. For the dark shades of these frocks make them extremely practical for general wear. In navy or Copenhagen blue or brown. Sizes 6 to 10 years. At right.

Elaborately Braided Pongee Frocks Priced at $25 Exactly the type of frock which meets the fastidious demands of "Miss Twelve-to-Sixteen." The pleated skirt and blouse in slipover effect are much liked. At left. Other pongee frocks in sizes 6 to 10 years are priced $15.

Of Particular Interest the New Tub Frocks—

Lovely little tub frocks ready now for first spring days. Colorful gingham, crisp little organdies and other tub frocks are now advantageously priced.

U.S. PLANNING TO TAKE ALL JOY OUT OF ALCOHOL

Order to Denature 90%
Expected Here.

An order calling for the denaturization of at least 90 per cent of all medicinal alcohol sold to manufacturers will be issued shortly by Washington authorities, announced last night. The order, which is the first step toward stopping the use of alcohol for medicinal purposes, is expected to be issued within a few days.

Frank D. Richardson, supervising prohibition agent, also said the order is certain to come. He believes that close to a million gallons of alcohol goes astray every month, Mr. Richardson said. "If some preparation could be made that would keep the alcohol for beverage purposes and would go a long way toward drying up the country."

Cantor oil was suggested by both Mr. Richardson and Mr. Stone as one of the best agents for use in denaturizing the alcohol. The former said he had recommended its use in a report made to Washington last week.

New Field Opens Up.
The Washington ruling that only wholesale druggists will be allowed to make medicinal whiskey has opened a new loophole for wholesale liquor dealers which it may take the government several months to stop up, in the opinion of Mr. Stone. He expects every one of the forty wholesale liquor dealers deprived of their right to sell whisky under present permits to apply for wholesale drug permits.

Under the regulations a dealer will have to sell a certain amount of drugs for every gallon of whiskey he sells, Mr. Stone said. "This probably will result in price cutting in an effort to dispose of large quantities of drugs."

Other Developments of Day.
The Washington ruling that only wholesale druggists will be allowed to make medicinal whiskey has opened a new loophole for wholesale liquor dealers which it may take the government several months to stop up, in the opinion of Mr. Stone. He expects every one of the forty wholesale liquor dealers deprived of their right to sell whisky under present permits to apply for wholesale drug permits.

Most important among the saloons that were those owned by Albert Weiss, 171 West Washington street; John Weiss, 123 West Washington street; and the Natarator Inn, 1433 Clark street.

Only One of Trio Held.
J. E. McGrath was the only one of three persons arrested when $50,000 worth of booze was seized at the former Hyde Park residence of Municipal Judge W. N. Gemmill, who was released. The two men, Mrs. Anna Karow and Zoe Miller Haury of Hyde Park, who were arrested with McGrath, are said to be out of the city. They will be questioned as soon as they are located.

APPEL TO PLAY
HOST TO 1,000
JOBLESS MEN
Charles Appel of the North Side Tavern hall will give a banquet to 1,000 of the jobless, hungry men who live in the west side "hog" houses this Saturday night at East End hall, Clark and West streets. Mme. Rosa Olitzka will be the guest of honor. The problems of the unemployed will be discussed after the banquet.

CALLS ON MARRIED WOMAN;
HUSBAND USES SHOTGUN
Frank Czigitz, 1832 Clybourn avenue, called on Mrs. John Kuris, 1658 Bissell street, last night. He was met by John Kuris, the husband, who works nights and came home unexpectedly. Czigitz, who had been drinking, told the woman he was married, but failed to satisfy Kuris, who fired both barrels of a shotgun as Czigitz ran. The latter had the top of his thumbs shot off and was wounded in the left leg.

ELOPES IN AUTO; TAKEN ON CHARGE OF STEALING CAR

John Christoff, 28 years old, 4220 West Madison street, will appear in the South Clark street court today on charges of larceny by embezzlement and larceny of an automobile. Christoff is charged with stealing a 1924 Buick sedan from the home of Mrs. Luba Christoff, 24 years old, 24 years old.

Christoff and Luba eloped Wednesday, taking with them Mrs. Salabashova's $3,000 automobile, she says. The salabashova charges that Christoff has swindled her out of $1,500 in selling one of her stores at 3552 West Roosevelt road, without her knowledge.

"I owned part interest in the automobile," the man said last night at the police bureau, where he was being held. "I also owned the store on Roosevelt road. The woman is my aunt, and is mad because Luba and I are leaving. Without us she can make no money. It is spite work."

GIRL TELLS, THEN
DENIES "PERFUME POISON" STORY
Miss Ruth Weinmann, 16 years old, of 2836 North Racine avenue, was found near the Rosehill cemetery at 8:30 o'clock last night weeping by Policeman R. Josephson of the North Robey street station. When questioned she told a weird story of being forced to inhale a fragrant perfume by a stranger and then losing consciousness.

Her parents were sent for, and the girl then broke down and told of concealing the story to account for her absence from home. She was turned over to her parents and allowed to go home.

Another of Morris' Pals
Falls Into Police Hands
Edward Lieberman, 26 years old, companion of Edward McBride and Edward Morris, was taken into custody last night by Sgt. Alexander Jensen of the detective bureau. Morris and McBride are held in the county jail in connection with the murder of Policeman John Mullen at the Lincoln Gardens recently. Lieberman is wanted for burglary and robbery, and is suspected of being connected with a gang of automobile whisky bandits who shot and killed Joseph Schweitzer, chauffeur of a truck loaded with whisky.

POSTPONE TAX ON NEUTRALIZED CREAM BUTTER

National Hearing Set for Feb. 25.

Plans of federal officials to include butter made from "neutralized" cream under the legal classification of "adulterated butter," and thereby subject it to taxes that would increase the retail price more than 10 cents a pound, have been postponed.

It was announced in Chicago yesterday that there will be no effort to enforce this classification before April 1, and that the decision whether it shall be imposed then rests upon a national hearing in Washington on Feb. 25. Farmers and butter men from all the dairy sections of the country, who already have begun flooding Washington with protests, plan to attend the hearing.

Brings Word from Capital.
These facts were made public by G. L. McKay, secretary of the American Association of Creamery Butter Manufacturers. He had just returned from Washington, where he conferred with Attorney General Palmer and W. W. Williams, commissioner of internal revenue.

The announcement of the proposed federal taxation of butter made from "neutralized" cream was published in The Tribune on Jan. 23. In connection with it there appeared a purported interview with Col. W. E. Skinner as secretary of the National Dairy Association which contained statements he did not make. His only reply to questions from a reporter was to refer them to Mr. McKay. The misquotation of Col. Skinner added to the confusion of the situation and was entirely the error of THE TRIBUNE.

Would Add to Butter Cost.
Last night Mr. McKay discussed the matter. "In the first place," he said, "this isn't merely a question of taxing butter producers. It's a question of how much more it will cost the consumer for his butter. Our average citizen eats fifteen pounds a year. A family of five would eat seventy-five pounds."

"If the proposed classification were imposed it would mean a big increase in the grocery bills of every household, for in addition to the flat tax of 10 cents a pound upon 'adulterated' butter the maker has to pay an annual license tax of $500 and the dealer a tax of $400."

"And the consumer would pay this without any benefit to the public health for this is not a health proposition. There has been, apparently from no accidental cause, a tendency to have the public believe that 'neutralized' cream is rancid cream. Rancid cream is almost an unknown quantity, but as every one knows, cream before it is ready for the churn is sour. With the almost universal methods of sending cream to the central creamery now used it is a bit too sour when it reaches there."

Cream Is Pasteurized.
"That doesn't mean it is 'bad' in any way. But for health reasons this cream is pasteurized and if it is too sour some of the butter fat is lost by curdling during the pasteurization. To prevent this loss one-tenth of 1 per cent of lime water is introduced—the same lime water you put in your milk to keep it from curdling. This merely reduces the degree of sourness and the word 'neutralize' therefore is like many trade words, a misnomer for the process isn't carried that far."

The law against 'adulterated' butter was passed in 1902 after two years' effort led by Charles Y. Knight, the motor inventor, then secretary of the Dairy Union. It was aimed at the 'remakers' of butter and the use of 'fillers' such as fuller's earth and glucose. That law specifically refers to 'parcels of melted or un-melted butter or butter fat' and not to cream. It prohibited the use of substances foreign to milk and lime is one of the inherent and valuable parts of milk which is prescribed for children frequently because of its lime content.

And, further, it has been shown that butter made from 'neutralized' cream contains no more than the normal amount of lime. That added for the pasteurization passes off with the buttermilk. And scientists have testified that the 'neutralization' process would not affect any odor there might be in the cream."

Man Found Hurt Near
the Insull Estate Dies
The man found, bruised and bleeding, near the Samuel Insull estate at Libertyville on New Year's night, died yesterday. His identity still a mystery. The man had been at the Lake county hospital for nearly six weeks, unable to talk. Once he did manage to say his name was John Anderson.

SOMEBODY IS ALWAYS TAKING THE JOY OUT OF LIFE

TWO ACTRESSES IN COTTAGE LEAD TO DIVORCE SUIT

Silent breakfasts and speechless evenings are said to have been the rule in the Libertyville home of William Preston, 60 year old manager of W. D. Kerfoot & Co., Chicago realty concern, and his wife, Georgiana F. Preston, for some time past.

The "armed neutrality" under which they have been laboring began when Mrs. Preston believed she had discovered that her husband had been maintaining two youthful actresses in a cottage in Austin.

Yesterday Mrs. Preston filed a bill for divorce in the Lake county Circuit court at Waukegan naming "Kathryn and Margaret Hollins" as the actresses. The young women completed a week's engagement at the Hippodrome theater last week and are now said to be playing in Quincy, Ill.

Seeks to Kject Them.
In addition to the divorce proceedings, Mrs. Preston has filed a bill for a partition for the purpose of ejecting the actresses from the Austin cottage at 5322 Ferdinand street. She charges that the girls paid $1,000 as part payment for the property and failed to make further payment. Or, if they did, she charges her husband never gave her her share to which she is entitled under a joint tenancy ownership.

Preston, who is a member of the Chicago Real Estate board and was at one time a member of the Libertyville High school board, refused to answer the charges yesterday.

At the cottage Mrs. C. Green, mother of the actresses, whose real names are Kathryn and Sallie Green, was indignant when told of the charges of Mrs. Preston.

Why we own this home ourselves and I do not believe my daughters know Mr. Preston beyond the acquaintanceship that sprung up while they were making arrangements to pay for the house," she declared. "It is an outrage that that woman should charge my innocent little girls with so horrible a thing."

Tells of Suspicion.
Mrs. Preston yesterday said that her suspicions were aroused about a year ago when her husband refused to tell her whether the girls had made further payments on the place.

The Inquiring Reporter Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

Today's Question.
Do you think the employees where you work are more efficient since the saloons closed?

Where Asked.
The Answers.
Ethel E. Larson, 6233 Magnolia avenue, private secretary—Generally I believe prohibition has increased the efficiency of employees. However, in our office, I do not think it has had any effect, because we have a class of employees who, if they drink at all, know how and when to drink.

Ruth McElmurry, 4903 Drexel boulevard, cashier—Yes, in my opinion, prohibition has had a noticeable effect for the better on the employees where I work. I don't think any of our employees ever drank to excess, but I am sure that since prohibition there is not so much drinking.

Jack E. Superfine, 1414 South St. Louis avenue, vice president—Yes, since prohibition people go home at night. It wasn't always the drinking that marred their efficiency so much as it was the long hours they kept while they were drinking.

Julius C. Lewis, 2553 Wilson avenue, salesman—I would say that our employees have worked better. Of course when I say that, some employees may take offense and declare they never drank to excess during the wet era.

What I mean is that all around they are more efficient now. Walter Mercer, 1921 South Central Park avenue, salesman—Yes, that is about all I can say about the question. But I am sure that employees where I work have been able to find more wholesome pleasure and therefore are better able to work.

Smallpox Case at Wesley
Hospital; Order Vaccination
Physicians, nurses, and patients at the Wesley hospital were ordered vaccinated yesterday following the discovery that Fay McKnight, a patient occupying a private room, was a victim of smallpox. McKnight, who is 17 years old, lives in Rockford, Ill. He was taken to the isolation hospital.

LIFE PRISONER IS ORDERED HANGED AT RECORD TRIAL

Harry H. Ward was sentenced to hang yesterday after a jury in Judge Hugo Friend's Criminal court had spent exactly thirty minutes considering evidence against the man, who is already serving a life term for his first murder.

The verdict broke all time records for a capital case in the Criminal court. Ward was brought back from the penitentiary on the motion of Assistant State's Attorney William S. Stewart to be tried for the murder of Frank Schwartz. The trial began at 9:30 a. m. He was convicted of the murder of Thomas Greaney in Judge McDonald's court last December, and the judge scored the jury when it brought in a life verdict, characterizing the sentence as a travesty on justice.

Killed Two in Holdup.
Last October Ward held up the store of Al the Hatter at 126 North Cleora avenue and shot the two pedestrians in making his escape. His flight was stopped by a bullet from the revolver of Fred Steep, another bystander, and he was at last taken by Policeman Francis Hogan. While the officer was leading his prisoner to the Austin station Ward picked up a hammer and struck his captor.

Makes No Difference, He Says.
"I thought they would be satisfied with the first verdict," he remarked to the bailiff. "It makes no difference to me. I did not raid the Victoria hotel, as was reported in The Tribune yesterday. The saloon is within the hotel, but is not run in conjunction with it."

Woman Doctor Run Down
by Auto; May Not Live
Dr. Susan Fairfield Laird, 50 years old, 7439 Cottage Grove avenue, was probably fatally injured last night when she was struck by an automobile driven by Jack Hirsch, 5906 Calumet avenue, while attempting to cross Cottage Grove avenue and East Seventy-fifth street. Hirsch was held.

Joseph Polach, 49 years old, 2224 West Twenty-fourth street, received a fractured skull when he was struck by an automobile at Leavitt and Twenty-second streets. The machine failed to stop.

BEG YOUR PARDON

The Tribune's announcement of a card party to be given at the Union League club next Saturday afternoon said it was arranged by the Chicago Alumnae club of the Pi Beta sorority for the benefit of the Pi Beta settlement school in Saltburg, Tenn. Pi Beta Psi was meant.

An item in connection with a map showing water power resources of the United States printed Feb. 8 said the National Parks association claimed that a large part of the power shown in the west would be developed only at the expense of the natural beauties of the parks. The association, on the contrary, holds that so little of the available water power lies within the parks that it would be foolish to destroy natural wonders to develop it.

In a story printed yesterday in The Tribune on "crook hangouts" being closed by the police it was stated that "Capt. Michael Gallery's men almost daily raided the place of Charles Genker and Julius Rosenblum at Halsted street and Archer avenue." Genker denies that his saloon ever was raided by Capt. Gallery or the police. "I sold out more than a month ago, but Capt. Mike Gallery's activities in that district had nothing to do with my getting out," said Genker.

Deputy Sheriff Otto Gnewuch arrested fifty men and women in the Victoria saloon in the Victoria hotel in a raid in Chicago Heights Wednesday night. He did not raid the Victoria hotel, as was reported in The Tribune yesterday. The saloon is within the hotel, but is not run in conjunction with it.

Three Arts Club Smoke
Hit in Clean City Fight
The chimney of the Three Arts Club was sending forth artistic wreaths of smoke yesterday when one of Health Commissioner Robertson's smoke inspectors spied it. Along with other buildings the club house was deprived of heat for from fifteen minutes to an hour yesterday for smoke violations. Among the other buildings were the Illinois Central freight house, foot of South Water street, Vogue building, 408 South Wells street, Western News company, 25 East Austin avenue and the Domestic Hand Laundry, 1248 North Clark street.

Palette and Chisel Club
Purchases $35,000 Home
Following plans completed yesterday for a new club house, the Palette and Chisel club is about to start a campaign to increase its membership to 500 artists, according to Glen C. Sheffer, vice president. The spacious old house at 1012 North Dearborn street will be the club's new home. The purchase price is $35,000. Mr. Sheffer said, "If when I appear before you again the property is not on a dividend basis."

HOLDERS OF GAS STOCK CLAMOR FOR DIVIDENDS

Insull Holds Out Hope at Stormy Meeting.

At the close of an unusually lively annual meeting of the stockholders of the Peoples Gas Light and Coke company yesterday, during which the shareholders asked some questions about management and dividends, President Samuel Insull voiced the hope that the company will be in financial condition to declare a dividend within a year.

The first interruption, by Mrs. Evelyn Knapp, a stockholder, came after Mr. Insull had placed the profits of the company at $380,000. He declared the gas company had been used as "a football in politics" and as "the stepping stone to office of a great many gentlemen with political aspirations." He took the public utilities commission to task for fixing the valuation of the company's properties at $85,000,000 and then refusing to grant rates allowing a 7 1/2 per cent return on that amount.

Asks for Pardon.
He pleaded for patience on the part of the stockholders, pointing out that dividends could not be declared until the company has liquidated $5,000,000 of floating debt—$4,000,000 in accounts and $1,000,000 in loans and notes. "How long will it be, Mr. Insull, before our stockholders will get any return?" asked Mrs. Knapp. "We have waited and we have paid 7 per cent on our money, and here it is three years and not a cent."

"Excuse me, madam," replied Insull. "I have the floor at this moment. I want to be perfectly polite to you, but as long as I have the floor, would you mind if I am allowed to proceed?" "Sure, you can have the floor," retorted the stockholder.

"You cannot spend money until you have it," said Mr. Insull after the annual report had been accepted. "Well, how long will that be?" asked Mrs. Knapp. "Mr. Insull replied he was unable to give a definite answer."

Asks Vote of Confidence.
A little later Mr. Insull asked for a motion for a resolution approving the acts of the directors and officers for the year. "Right there," said S. R. Harris, another stockholder, "I would like to ask if the stockholders have any rights here? Can we get up and express our opinions freely?" "Yes, sir," replied President Insull. "There are lots of ladies and gentlemen here who would like to have that right," said Harris. "They do not like to see this thing railroaded through. It looks here as if everything was cut and dried and I think somebody ought to have a little stamina and get up here and have a right to have something to say."

The salaries are enormous for some of the men and some should be reduced," interrupted Mrs. Knapp. "There ought to be a little dividend paid out of the $10,000,000 surplus," suggested another stockholder.

Objects to Charges.
"If the gas company is making money on gas, it is its business to supply gas and sell the gas it can," said Harris. "But if you want to put gas into a certain building it will charge you an exorbitant price for putting in the pipes. Prior to the war the gas company was selling you a stove at cost and putting in the pipes for nothing. Now it will charge you for putting gas at a certain place. It will give you an estimate of $85 to put in about twenty feet of pipe underground and run it back into a basement about sixty feet. I was charged $85 for that. I had electric service put in for one-half or one-quarter of that price."

Makes Up Losses.
Mr. Insull stated the company had made up during the last six months of 1920 what it lost during the first six months. He asserted the company did not have the reputation of overpaying its men. "Excuse me, but I would like to be the wife of one of those high salaried men," said Mrs. Knapp. "I have to do my own washing."

Mr. Insull replied she might be a good housekeeper but didn't know much about business. "I read in the papers that two men alone are making $31,000," she said later. "I would not be surprised," returned Mr. Insull. "Yes, sir! And that is very good, isn't it?" "Yes," replied President Insull with spirit. "And I am paid more than that, and I won't work for one minute if I am not. That is what I am paid for. This concern buys my brains in their application to this business, and that is what I have to sell."

"I shall be disappointed," Mr. Insull added, "if when I appear before you again the property is not on a dividend basis."

Peoples Gas Company Must Pay Tax Case Court Costs
Springfield, Ill., Feb. 10.—The Supreme court today held the Peoples Gas Light and Coke company of Chicago liable for $29,549 court costs incurred by the Cook county master in chancery in investigating the company's alleged unfair tax assessment of 1909. The costs were at first assessed against the city.

Church Burns in Mystery
Fire; 3 Families Routed
Fire of mysterious origin last night destroyed Trinity Lutheran church, 906 South Marshfield avenue, which had not been occupied for a year. The total damage, including that to buildings adjoining, was placed at $25,000. Several families were driven to the street, among them the families of Michael DeCina, Mrs. Mary Rapoport, and Mrs. Elizabeth Arons.

NEWS OF SOCIETY

Will Be Bride of Allister McCormick

Mrs. Alfred Landon Baker, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Landon Baker, will be married to Allister McCormick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Landon Baker, at 631 Rush street, at 10 o'clock, tomorrow, Feb. 12.

The announcement is of unusual interest to society, not because it is a marriage of the younger set and belonging to the same family, but because the bride and groom are both well known Chicago families. The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Landon Baker, who were prominent in the city's social life. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Landon Baker, who were also prominent in the city's social life.

The Chicago Historical society will have a reception Monday afternoon at which Dr. J. M. James, a member of the society, will speak on the subject of "The History of the Chicago Historical Society." The reception will be held at the society's headquarters, 100 North Dearborn street.

The Kenwood Social Service club will have a tea on Washington's birthday, Feb. 22, from 2 to 4 o'clock, at the residence of Mrs. Edward Morris, 4800 West Belmont street.

The Society of Midland Authors will have a luncheon next Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Drinkwater, 100 North Dearborn street.

Mrs. Warren W. Shoemaker of Hubbard, Wis., will open her home today at 10 o'clock for the last of a series of talks on current events to be given by Mrs. Anthony French Merrill.

Mrs. and Mrs. Chauncey McCormick and children have returned from France and are at Coconut Grove, Fla. With Mr. McCormick's parents, Mrs. William G. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Feltz, Jr. are spending the winter in Colorado.

Mrs. Henry Hooper of 1225 North Dearborn street left yesterday for a short visit to Detroit.

Mrs. John Caldwell, who has been visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. P. A. Parrell of 1328 Dearborn park, will return to her home in Troy, N. Y., tomorrow.

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER. Men Never Understand

ENGAGED
Announcement Confirms the Expectations of Chicago Society.

Miss Norma McMillen, a senior at Northwestern university, yesterday announced she would marry John S. Prescott, senior at the University of Illinois and captain of the track team. The date for the wedding has not been set. Prescott and his bride-to-be lived across the street from each other on Linden avenue in Winnetka, and both attended the public schools there. Then they graduated at the New Frier High school in Winnetka.

WHEAT BULGES; GIVES BOOST TO COARSE GRAINS

By Charles D. Michaels.

Sharp rallies and breaks featured the grain markets. Business was of liberal volume and largely local. Bulges ran into liberal selling, causing sharp setbacks, while grain disappeared on breaks. News was scarce and without pronounced effect. At the close wheat was 1 1/2c higher, corn up 1 1/4c, oats 1/2c, rye 3/4c, and barley 1/2c.

What was the most interesting of all the grain markets and the others trailed along, deriving a good part of their strength from it. The wheat market was more by the action of large local operators and commission houses than by anything else.

Export Demand Better.

More was heard about export business, with an increase in sales, including 200,000 bu. of Manitoba and a fair lot of hard winter wheat at seaboard. The Czechoslovakian wheat market was said to be in the market for 400,000 bu. The government from the country continues light, especially in the southwest.

Green bug stories continue to come from the central part of Texas, but are not backed by general buying orders. March wheat was sold by large holders on the bulge and May was bought at 12c discount.

Better Feeling in Corn.

There is a feeling in certain quarters that corn prices have seen their lowest, for the present at least. Country offerings are light and roads so had deliveries are small. Cash values are hardening, as low grades are working near the May, and in three days have gained 1 1/2c.

Top prices for May were 65c, which was 1 1/2c higher, and called out profit taking on larger lines by northwestern houses. Buying in the main was covering by shorts.

Oats received more strength from the advance in other grains than from trading operations. Northwestern and local houses sold on the advance of nearly 1c and the close was only fractionally below the top.

Trading in rye was mainly spreading with wheat, the latter being sold and rye bought at 15c in the top. Barley was bought and sold at 20c discount. Spot barley was 1 1/2c higher.

Legs Sell Provisions.

Packers and long sold provisions, while the buying was limited. Prices for a small range and closed with hard and unchanged and pork 10c lower. The strength in grains had no effect. Prices follow:

WORLD'S GRAIN MARKET-NEWS

Leading grain exchanges of the United States will be closed Saturday, Lincoln's birthday.

An evening up of trade is expected today as there will be a two day holiday. Large traders who are in Florida, particularly at Palm Beach, were credited with finishing their covering in wheat on yesterday's advance. As their buying has contributed largely to the advance of wheat from the low point of last week on March wheat and 1 1/2c on May, careful traders in numerous instances regarded the advance as enough for the present, as it discounts a large part of the bullish conditions. Profits were generally advised.

It was the opinion of a number of the commission houses last night that the technical position of all grains had been weakened by a reduction in the short interest and while prices might not decline to any extent, it was not wise to buy on bulges from this level.

Advices from Peoria and Springfield, Ill., said farmers were selling no corn.

Green bug reports from the southwest are attracting more or less attention and while the presence of the bug is confirmed in Texas and Oklahoma, no damage of consequence is claimed. J. E. Bennett, J. S. Baugh & Co., Lawton & Co., and Clement, Curtis & Co., all had reports regarding green bugs, and the last night a heavy rain sweeping the pest at the Missouri point. The reports of bugs are not being accompanied to any extent by buying orders.

There was a bulge in hog values after a start that was steady to lower. The early decline was fully recovered due to lively competition among shippers, packers, and speculators. The day's top at $9.50 and the average at $8.50 stood 50 cents lower than Wednesday. Swift's driving drove $8.45 and several other packers drove $8.20 to $8.75.

Everett C. Brown, president of the National Live Stock Exchange, referring to the recent break to the lowest price in five years, said: "The recent decline at the end of the winter crop, with the margin of profit at prevailing prices for the product, seems ridiculous and unwarranted."

The cattle trade showed more tone and while some of the poorer kinds sold barely steady, better grades closed strong, with instances of some advance, yearlings averaging 1.05 the selling at $10.00. Sheep and lambs were steady to lower, with top lambs at $9.75.

Seven western markets received 21,000 cattle, 10,000 hogs, and 35,000 sheep against 19,000 cattle, 9,000 hogs, and 31,000 sheep previous Thursday, and 21,000 cattle, 7,000 hogs, and 47,000 sheep a year ago.

Receipts for today are estimated at 2,000 cattle, 25,000 hogs, and 10,000 sheep, against 4,774 cattle, 32,774 hogs, and 10,487 sheep at Chicago corresponding Friday a year ago.

SUGAR MARKETS.

NEW YORK FEB. 10.—SUGAR—Raw 50% for continental, refined, unchanged at 6.80 for the granulated. Futures closed 6 to 10 points net higher. March closed at 4.80; Apr. 4.85; May 4.75; and Sept. 4.95.

PRODUCE MARKETS

Another advance of 1c was made in egg prices yesterday, with fresh sets at 34c. Buyers took hold more readily as consumption has been increased by the decline. Arrivals were 15,433 cases, against 16,011 last year.

Butter prices here advanced 1/16c with enough trade to clean up the offerings. Butter markets cleaned up fairly and a steady feeling prevailed.

Cheese trade improved with good sized lots of Swiss sold here. Wisconsin markets were unsettled with Americans the lower and square prints the higher. Eastern markets had a better trade.

FARM & FIRESIDE

The National Farm Magazine

Lots of Time
 "There will be plenty of time for arm after we have obtained an agreement," Senator said. "The British fleet is almost double our strength in battleships, and of course they will afford to suspend build time without fear of criticism."
 He declared, however, that the pension of capital ship will be a British government will not accept the advice of the naval committee.
 Senator King, Utah, committee member, said that the floor and announced that the minority report favors the naval holiday.
